PREFACE.

The daily exercises of the Women's College of Baltimore are preceded by a brief chapel-service. In order to add effectiveness to the singing it was deemed suitable that the music used should be arranged especially for female voices. In this book standard tunes are written as duets for soprano and alto as complete as is possible in two-part composition. At the same time, in order to widen the sphere of its usefulness, tenor and bass have been added. The music as it stands may be sung in the following four ways,—

1. Duets for soprano and alto.

2. Trios for soprano and two altos the second alto singing the bass part, which of course, sounds one octave higher.

3. Trios for soprano, alto and bass.

4. Quartets for soprano, alto, tenor and bass.

It will be noticed that in a few instances the second alto will sing higher than the soprano; this will not occasion discord.

This collection may be used in Sunday schools, the girls singing the soprano, the boys the alto and the male teachers the tenor and bass.

Accompanists will sometimes be compelled to omit the tenor, which is occasionally beyond the reach of either hand.

It may be added that in addition to old favorites this book contains many gems from the great masters arranged especially for this work.

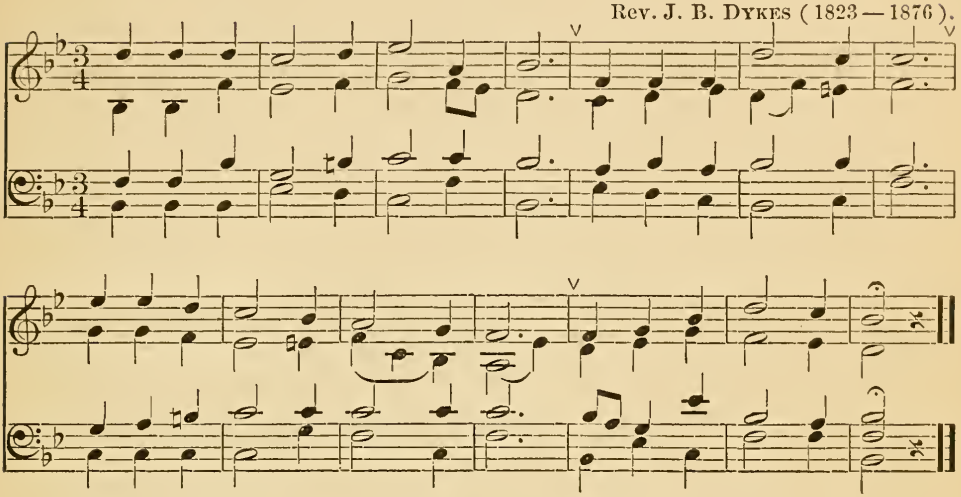
THE WOMAN'S HYMNAL.

No. 1. ST. AGNES. C. M.

Rev. J. B. DYKES (1823—1876).



1 Workman of God! O lose not heart,
But learn what God is like;
And in the darkest battle-field
Thou shalt know where to strike.

2 Thrice blest is he to whom is given
The instinct that can tell
That God is on the field, when He
Is most invisible.

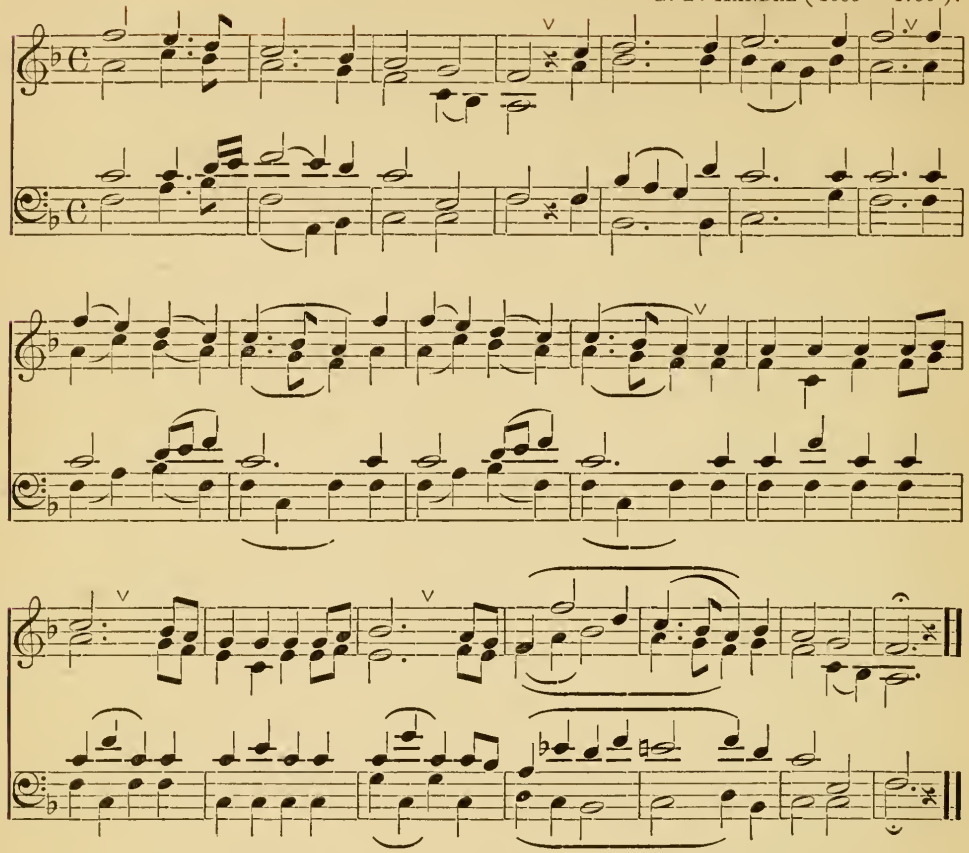
3 Blest too is he who can divine
Where real right doth lie,
And dares to take the side that seems
Wrong to man's blindfold eye.

4 Then learn to scorn the praise of men,
And learn to lose with God;
For Jesus won the world through shame,
And beckons thee His road.

 REV. FREDERICK W. FABER (1815—1863).

No. 2. ANTIOCH. C. M.

G. F. Handel (1685—1759).



1 Joy to the world! the Lord is come;
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
‖: And heaven and nature sing.:‖

2 Joy to the world! the Saviour reigns;
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and ‖: Repeat the sounding joy.:‖ [plains

3 No more let sin and sorrow grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make His blessings flow
‖: Far as the curse is found.:‖

4 He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness,
‖: And wonders of His love.:‖

1 There is an eye that never sleeps
Beneath the wing of night;
There is an ear that never shuts,
When sink the beams of light.

2 There is an arm that never tires,
When human strength gives way;
There is a love that never fails,
When earthly loves decay.

3 That eye is fixed on seraph throngs;
That arm upholds the sky;
That ear is filled with angel songs;
That love is throned on high.

4 But there 's a power which man can wield,
When mortal aid is vain,
That eye, that arm, that love to reach,
That listening ear to gain.

5 That power is prayer, which soars on high,
Through Jesus, to the throne,
And moves the hand which moves the world,
To bring salvation down.

1 O for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free!
A heart that always feels thy blood,
So freely spilt for me.

2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My great Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone.

3 O for a lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true and clean,
Which neither life, nor death can part
From him that dwells within!

4 A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine;
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of thine.

5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart;
Come quickly from above;
Write thy new name upon my heart,
Thy new, best name of love.

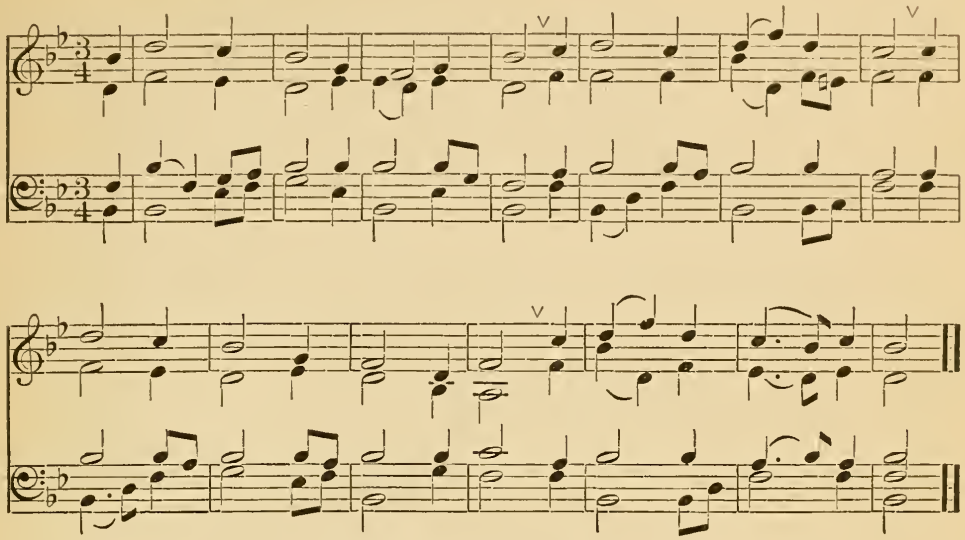
SCOTCH AIR.



1 O Sun of righteousness, arise
With healing in thy wing!
To my diseased, my fainting soul,
Life and salvation bring.

2 These clouds of pride and sin dispel,
By thy all-piercing beam;
Lighten mine eyes with faith; my heart
With holy hope inflame;

3 My mind, by thy all-quickening power,
From low desires set free;
Unite my scattered thoughts, and fix
My love entire on Thee.

4 Nothing I ask or want beside,
Of all in earth or heaven,
But let me feel thy blood applied,
And live and die forgiven.

1 There is a safe and secret place
Beneath the wings divine,
Reserved for all the heirs of grace;
O be that refuge mine!

2 The least and feeblest there may bide,
Uninjured and unawed;
While thousands fall on every side,
He rests secure in God.

3 He feeds in pastures large and fair
Of love and truth divine;
O child of God, O glory's heir,
How rich a lot is thine!

4 A hand almighty to defend,
An ear for every call,
An honored life, a peaceful end,
And heaven to crown it all!

1 All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

2 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

3 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

4 Oh, that with yonder sacred throng
We at his feet may fall!
We 'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

1 The glorious universe around,
The heavens with all their train,
Sun, moon, and stars, are firmly bound
In one mysterious chain.

2 In one fraternal bond of love,
One fellowship of mind,
The saints below and saints above
Their bliss and glory find.

3 Here, in their house of pilgrimage,
Thy statutes are their song;
There, through one bright, eternal age,
Thy praises they prolong.

4 Lord, may our union form a part
Of that thrice happy whole;
Derive its pulse from thee, the heart,
Its life, from thee, the soul.

1 God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill,
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sovereign will.

3 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour:
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

4 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain:
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

1 Walk in the light! so shalt thou know
That fellowship of love,
His Spirit only can bestow
Who reigns in light above.

2 Walk in the light! and thou shalt find
Thy heart made truly his,
Who dwells in cloudless light enshrined,
In whom no darkness is.

3 Walk in the light! and thou shalt own
Thy darkness passed away,
Because that light hath on thee shone
In which is perfect day.

4 Walk in the light! thy path shall be Peaceful, serene, and bright;
For God, by grace, shall dwell in thee,
And God himself is light.

1 O Jesus, King most wonderful,
Thou Conqueror renowned,
Thou sweetness most ineffable,
In whom all joys are found!

2 When once thou visitest the heart,
Then truth begins to shine,
Then earthly vanities depart,
Then kindles love divine.

3 Jesus, may all confess thy name,
Thy wondrous love adore,
And, seeking thee, themselves inflame
To seek thee more and more.

4 Thee, Jesus, may our voices bless;
Thee may we love alone;
And ever in our lives express,
The image of thine own.

1 Jesus, the very thought of thee
With sweetness fills the breast;
‖: But sweeter far thy face to see, :‖
And in thy presence rest.

2 O Hope of every contrite heart,
O Joy of all the meek,
‖: To those who ask, how kind thou art! :‖
How good to those who seek!

3 But what to those who find? Ah, this
Nor tongue nor pen can show;
‖: The love of Jesus, what it is, :‖
None but his loved ones know.

4 Jesus, our only joy be thou,
As thou our prize wilt be;
‖: In thee be all our glory now, :‖
And through eternity.

1 We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For him no depths can drown.

2 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is he;
And faith has yet its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.

3 The healing of the seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;
We touch him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

4 Through him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame;
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with his name.

5 O Lord and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own thy sway, we hear thy call,
We test our lives by thine!

1 As shadows, cast by cloud and sun,
Flit o'er the summer grass,
So, in thy sight, Almighty One,
Earth's generations pass.

2 And as the years, an endless host,
Come swiftly pressing on,
The brightest names that earth can boast
Just glisten and are gone.

3 Yet doth the star of Bethlehem shed
A lustre pure and sweet;
And still it leads, as once it led,
To the Messiah's feet.

4 O Father, may that holy star
Grow every year more bright,
And send its glorious beams afar
To fill the world with light.

1 Oh, it is hard to work for God,
To rise and take his part
Upon this battle-field of earth,
And not sometimes lose heart!

2 He hides himself so wondrously,
As though there were no God;
He is least seen when all the powers
Of ill are most abroad;

3 Or he deserts us in the hour
The fight is all but lost;
And seems to leave us to ourselves
Just when we need him most.

4 It is not so, but so it looks;
And we lose courage then;
And doubts will come if God hath kept
His promises to men.

5 But right is right, since God is God;
And right the day must win;
To doubt would be disloyalty,
To falter would be sin!

The sacred leaves unfold;
And here the Saviour's lovely face
Our raptured eyes behold.

2 Here light descending from above
Directs our doubtful feet;
Here promises of heavenly love
Our ardent wishes meet.

3 Our numerous griefs are here redressed,
And all our wants supplied:
Naught we can ask to make us blest
Is in this book denied.

1 Prayer is the breath of God in man,
Returning whence it came;
Love is the sacred fire within,
And prayer the rising flame.

2 It gives the burdened spirit ease,
And soothes the troubled breast;
Yields comfort to the mourners here,
And to the weary rest.

3 When God inclines the heart to pray,
He hath an ear to hear;
To him there 's music in a groan,

1 Lord, as to thy dear cross we flee,
And pray to be forgiven,
So let thy life our pattern be,
And form our souls for heaven.

2 Help us, through good report and ill,
Our daily cross to bear,
Like thee, to do our Father's will.
Our brother's griefs to share.

3 Let grace our selfishness expel,
Our earthliness refine;
And kindness in our bosoms dwell
As free and true as thine.

4 If joy shall at thy bidding fly,
And grief's dark day come on,
We, in our turn, would meekly cry,
"Father, thy will be done."

1 My Saviour, on the word of truth
In earnest hope I live;
I ask for all the precious things,
Thy boundless love can give.
I look for many a lesser light
About my path to shine;
But chiefly long to walk with thee,
And only trust in thine.

2 Thou knowest that I am not blest
As thou wouldst have me be,
Till all the peace and joy of faith
Possess my soul in thee;
And still I seek, 'mid many fears,
With yearnings unexpressed,
The comfort of thy strengthening love,
Thy soothing, settling rest.

3 It is not as thou wilt with me,
Till, humbled in the dust,
I know no place in all my heart
Whereiu to put my trust:
Until I find, O Lord, in thee,
The Lowly and the Meek,
The fullness which thy own redeemed
Go nowhere else to seek.

1 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Come unto me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon my breast!"
I came to Jesus as I was,
Weary, and worn, and sad;
I found in him a resting-place,
And he hath made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say
"Behold, I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down, and drink, and live!"
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in him.

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"I am this dark world's Light;
Look unto me, thy morn shall rise

In unison with God's great thought,
The near and future blend in one,
And whatsoe'er is willed, is done.

3 And ours the grateful service whence
Comes, day by day, the recompense;
The hope, the trust, the purpose stayed,
The fountain, and the noonday shade.

The only end and aim of man,
Better the toil of fields like these

New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

3 If on our daily course our mind

New treasures still of countless price

He can create, and he destroy.

2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men;
And when like wandering sheep we strayed,
He brought us to his fold again.

3 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.

4 Wide as the world is thy command;
Vast as eternity thy love;
Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

1 Jesus, thou joy of loving hearts!
Thou Fount of life! thou Light of men!
From the best bliss that earth imparts,
‖: We turn unfilled to thee again.:‖

2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
Thou savest those that on thee call;
To them that seek thee, thou art good,
‖: To them that find thee, all in all.:‖

3 We taste thee, O thou Living Bread,
And long to feast upon thee still;
We drink of thee, the Fountain Head,
‖: And thirst our souls from thee to fill!:‖

4 Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
Where 'er our changeful lot is cast;
Glad, when thy gracious smile we see,
‖: Blest, when our faith can hold thee fast.:‖

5 O Jesus, ever with us stay;
Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away,

1 Thou Lamb of God, thou Prince of Peace,
For thee my thirsty soul doth pine;
My longing heart implores thy grace;
O make me in thy likeness shine.

2 When pain o'er my weak flesh prevails,
With lamb-like patience arm my breast;
When grief my wounded soul assails,
In lowly meekness may I rest.

3 Close by thy side still may I keep,
Howe'er life's various currents flow;
With steadfast eye mark every step,
And follow thee where'er thou go.

4 Thou, Lord, the dreadful fight hast won;
Alone thou hast the wine-press trod;
In me thy strengthening grace be shown;
O may I conquer through thy blood.

5 So, when on Zion thou shalt stand,
And all heaven's host adore their King,
Shall I be found at thy right hand,
And, free from pain, thy glories sing.

But humbly let us still adore.

2 With meek submission may we bear
Each needful cross thou shalt ordain;
Nor think our trials too severe,
Nor dare thy justice to arraign.

3 For though mysterious now thy ways
To erring mortals may appear,
Hereafter we thy name shall praise,
For all our keenest sufferings here.

4 Thy needful help, O God, afford,
Nor let us sink in deep despair;
Aid us to trust thy sacred word,

For us around thy throne of grace,
We pray thee, lift our hearts above,
And draw them with the cords of love.

2 Source of all good, thou, gracious Lord,
Art our exceeding great reward;
How transient is our present pain,
How boundless our eternal gain!

3 With open face and joyful heart,
We then shall see thee as thou art:
Our love shall never cease to glow,
Our praise shall never cease to flow.

4 Thy never-failing grace to prove,

Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name:
On Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand.

2 When darkness seems to veil his face,
I rest on his unchanging grace;
In every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the veil:
On Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand.

1 He leadeth me! O blessed thought!
O words with heavenly comfort fraught!
Whate'er I do, where'er I be,
Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.
He leadeth me, he leadeth me,
By his own hand he leadeth me:
‖: His faithful follower I would be,
For by his hand he leadeth me.:‖

2 Sometimes 'mid scenes of deepest gloom,
Sometimes where Eden's bowers bloom,
By waters still, o'er troubled sea,—
Still 'tis his hand that leadeth me!

3 Lord, I would clasp thy hand in mine,
Nor ever murmur nor repine,
Content, whatever lot I see,
Since 't is my God that leadeth me!

4 And when my task on earth is done,
When, by thy grace, the victory's won,
E'en death's cold wave I will not flee,
Since God through Jordan leadeth me.

On any shore, since God is there.:‖

Secure of finding God in all.:‖

1 Faith of our fathers! living still
In spite of dungeon, fire, and sword:
O how our hearts beat high with joy
Whene'er we hear that glorious word:
Faith of our fathers! holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death!

2 Our fathers, chained in prisons dark,
Were still in heart and conscience free:
How sweet would be their children's fate,
If they, like them, could die for thee!
Faith of our fathers! holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death!

3 Faith of our fathers! we will love
Both friend and foe in all our strife:
And preach thee, too, as love knows how,
By kindly words and virtuous life:
Faith of our fathers! holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death!

FREDERICK W. FABER (1815—1863).

1 When time seems short and death is near,
And I am pressed by doubt and fear,
And sins, an overflowing tide,
Assail my peace on every side,
This thought my refuge still shall be,
I know the Saviour died for me.

2 His name is Jesus, and he died,
For guilty sinners crucified;
Content to die that he might win
Their ransom from the death of sin:
No sinner worse than I can be,
Therefore I know he died for me.

3 If grace were bought, I could not buy;
If grace were coined, no wealth have I;
By grace alone I draw my breath,
Held up from everlasting death;
Yet, since I know his grace is free,
I know the Saviour died for me.

3 Just as I am — thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;

1 Crown him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon his throne;
Hark, how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing,
Of him who died for thee,
And hail him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

2 Crown him the Lord of love!
Behold his hands and side,—
Rich wounds, yet visible above,
In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning eye
At mysteries so great.

3 Crown him the Lord of peace!
Whose power a scepter sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
And all be prayer and praise:
His reign shall know no end,
And round his piercéd feet
Fair flowers of paradise extend,
Their fragrance ever sweet.

4 Crown him the Lord of years,
The Potentate of time,
Creator of the rolling spheres,
Ineffably sublime!
All hail! Redeemer, hail!
For thou hast died for me;

Throughout eternity.

1 I was a wandering sheep,
I did not love the fold,
I did not love my Shepherd's voice,
I would not be controlled;
I was a wayward child,
I did not love my home,
I did not love my Father's voice,
I loved afar to roam.

2 The Shepherd sought his sheep,
The Father sought his child;
He followed me o'er vale and hill,
O'er deserts waste and wild:
He found me nigh to death,
Famished, and faint, and lone;
He bound me with the bands of love,
He saved the wandering one.

3 Jesus my Shepherd is;
'T was he that loved my soul,
'T was he that washed me in his blood,
'T was he that made me whole:
'T was he that sought the lost,
That found the wandering sheep;
'T was he that brought me to the fold,
'T was he that still doth keep.

4 No more a wandering sheep,
I love to be controlled:
I love my tender Shepherd's voice,
I love the peaceful fold:
No more a wayward child,
I seek no more to roam;
I love my heavenly Father's voice,
I love, I love his home!

1 Jesus, Lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high!
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide,
O receive my soul at last!

2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee:
Leave, O leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me:
All my trust on thee is stayed,
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing!

3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
More than all in thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is thy name,

False and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

Grace to cover all my sin:
Let the healing streams abound;
Make and keep me pure within.

Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

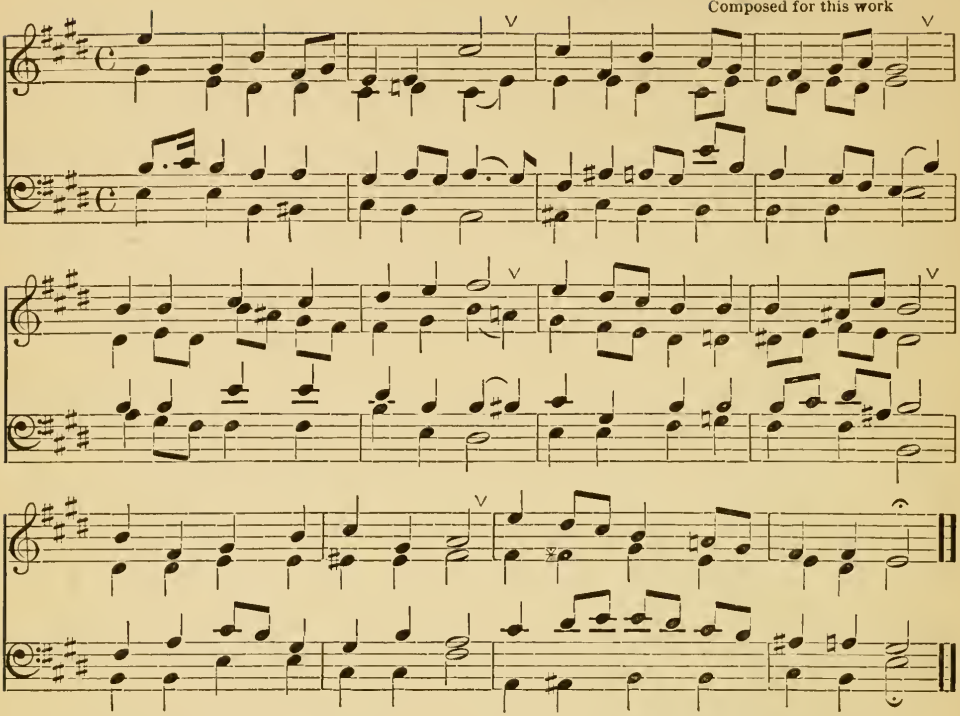
Composed for this work



1 As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold;
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright;
So, most gracious Lord, may we
Evermore be led to thee.

2 As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy-seat.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to thee, our heavenly King.

4 Holy Jesus, every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds thy glory hide.

1 Saviour, when, in dust, to thee
Low we bend th' adoring knee;
When, repentant, to the skies
Scarce we lift our weeping eyes;
O by all the pains and woe
Suffered once for man below,
Bending from thy throne on high,
Hear our solemn litany!

2 By thy helpless infant years;
By thy life of want and tears;
By thy days of sore distress,
In the savage wilderness;
By the dread mysterious hour
Of the insulting tempter's power;
Turn, O turn a favoring eye,
Hear our solemn litany!

3 By the sacred griefs that wept
O'er the grave where Lazarus slept;
By the boding tears that flowed
Over Salem's loved abode;
By the anguished sigh that told
Treachery lurked within thy fold;
From thy seat above the sky,
Hear our solemn litany!

4 By thine hour of dire despair;
By thine agony of prayer;
By the cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear, and torturing scorn;
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful sacrifice;
Listen to our humble cry,
Hear our solemn litany!

5 By thy deep, expiring groan;
By the sad sepulchral stone;
By the vault whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God;
O from earth to heaven restored,
Mighty, re-ascended Lord,
Listen, listen to the cry
Of our solemn litany!

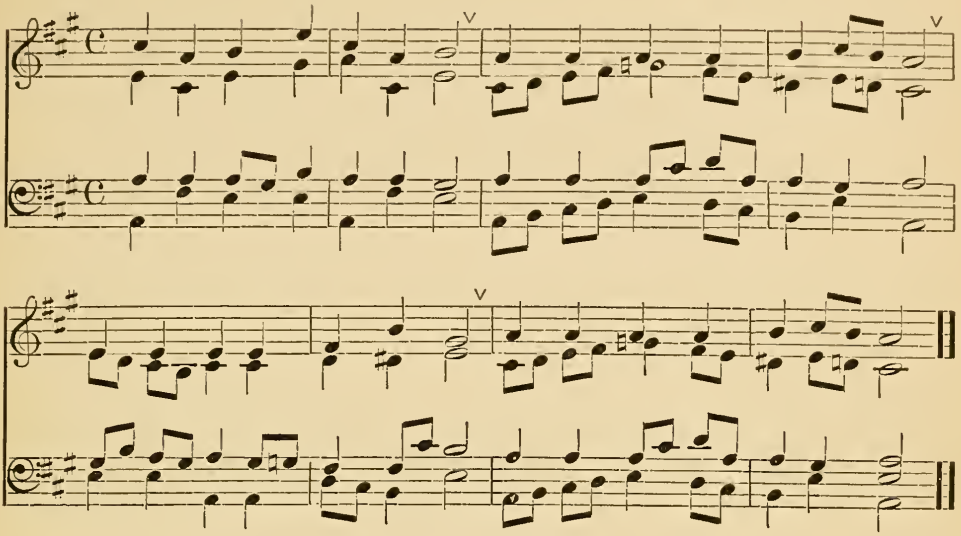
J. R. Ahle (1625—1673).



1 Holy Spirit, Truth divine!
Dawn upon this soul of mine;
Word of God, and inward Light!
Wake my spirit, clear my sight.

2 Holy Spirit, Love divine!
Glow within this heart of mine;
Kindle every high desire;
Perish self in thy pure fire!

3 Holy Spirit, Power divine!
Fill and nerve this will of mine;
By thee may I strongly live,
Bravely bear, and nobly strive.

4 Holy Spirit, Right divine!
King within my conscience reign;
Be my law, and I shall be
Firmly bound, forever free.

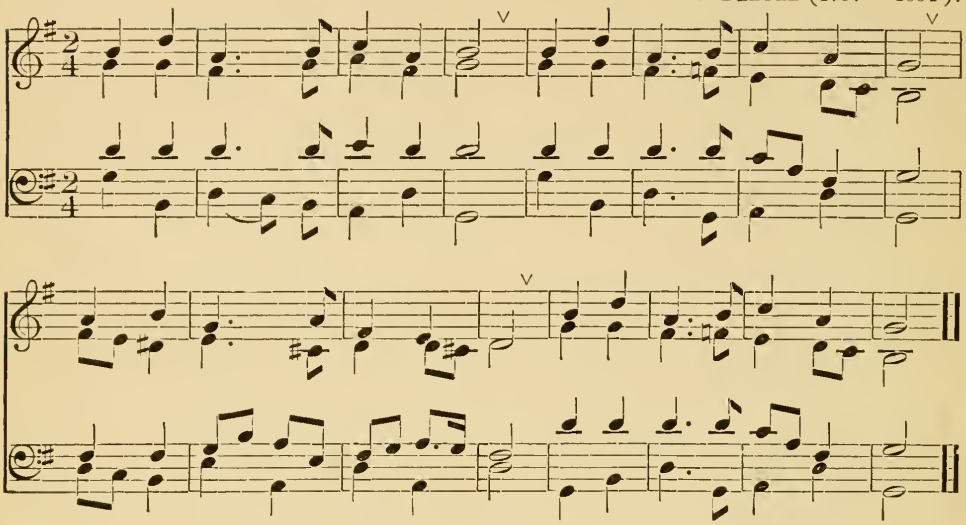
No. 65. PLEYEL'S HYMN. 7s.

I. Pleyel (1757—1831).



1 Never further than ~~than~~ thy cross:
Never higher than thy feet:
Here earth's precious things seem dross:
Here earth's bitter things grow sweet.

2 Here we learn to serve and give,
And, rejoicing, self deny;
Here we gather love to live,
Here we gather faith to die.

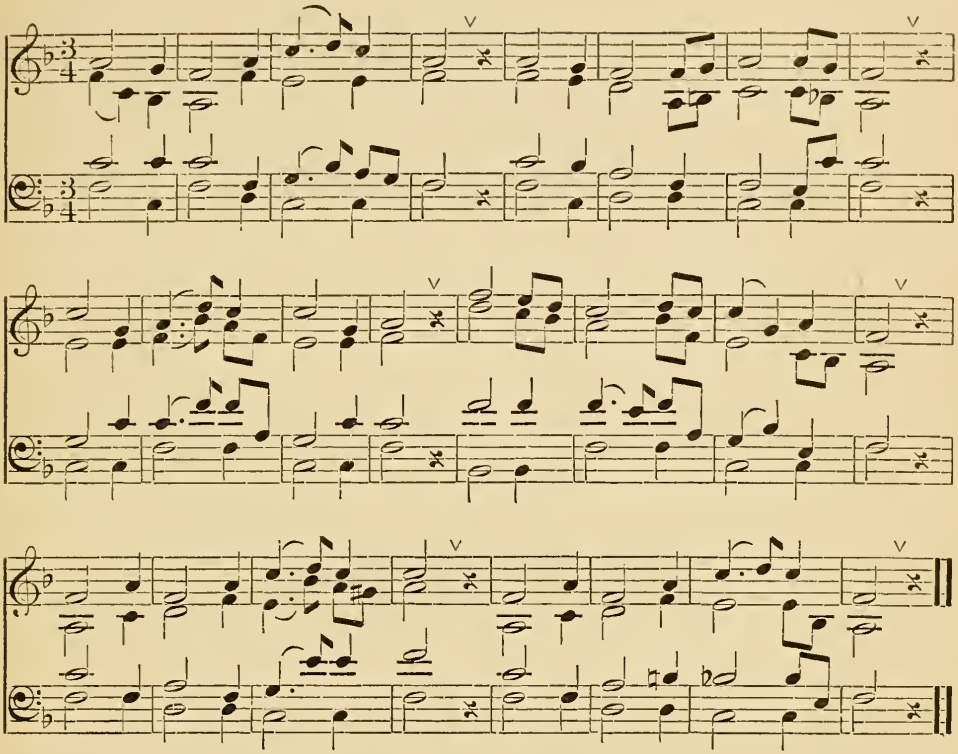
3 Pressing onward as we can,
Still to this our hearts must tend;
Where our earliest hopes began,
There our last aspirings end;

4 Till amid the hosts of light,
We in thee redeemed, complete,
Through thy cross made pure and white,
Cast our crowns before thy feet.

Mrs. Elizabeth Charles, 1865.

No. 66. REPOSE. 7s, 6 lines.

F. KUCKEN (1810 —).



1 Chief of sinners though I be,
Jesus shed his blood for me;
Died that I might live on high,
Died that I might never die;
As the branch is to the vine,
I am his and he is mine.

2 O the height of Jesus' love!
Higher than the heavens above,
Deeper than the depths of sea,
Lasting as eternity;
Love that found me,—wondrous thought!
Found me when I sought him not!

3 Chief of sinners though I be,
Christ is all in all to me;
All my wants to him are known,
All my sorrows are his own;
Safe with him from earthly strife,
He sustains the hidden life.

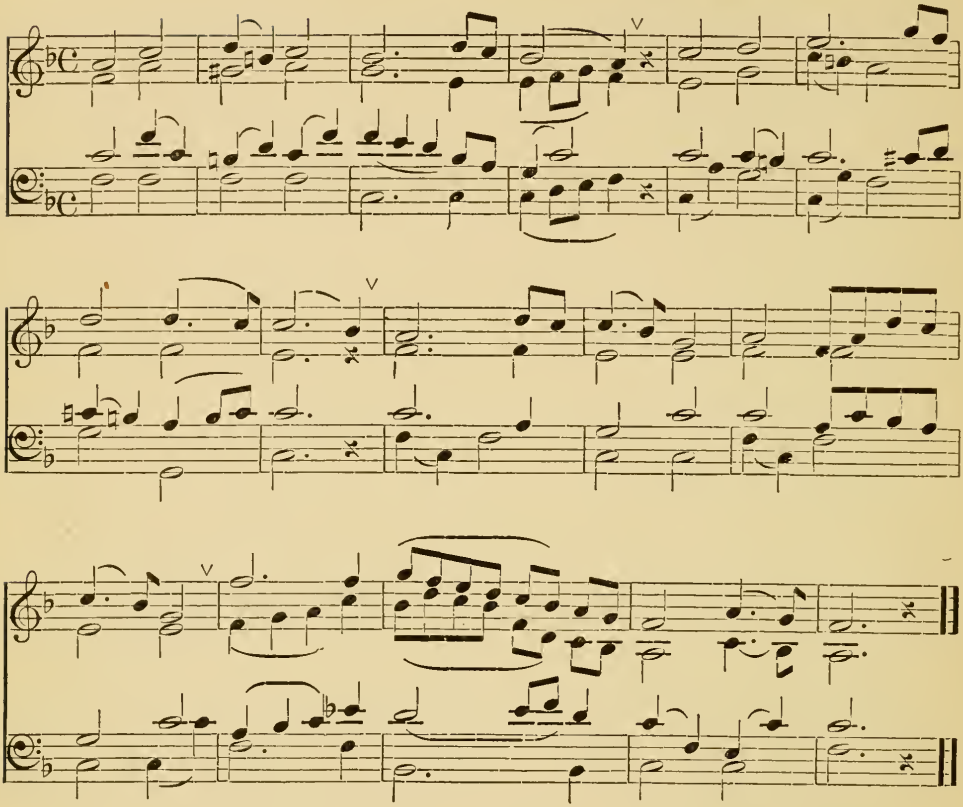
C. M. v. Weber (1786 — 1826).



1 There 's a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea:
There 's a kindness in his justice,
Which is more than liberty.

2 There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Saviour;
There is healing in his blood.

3 For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.

4 If our love were but more simple,
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

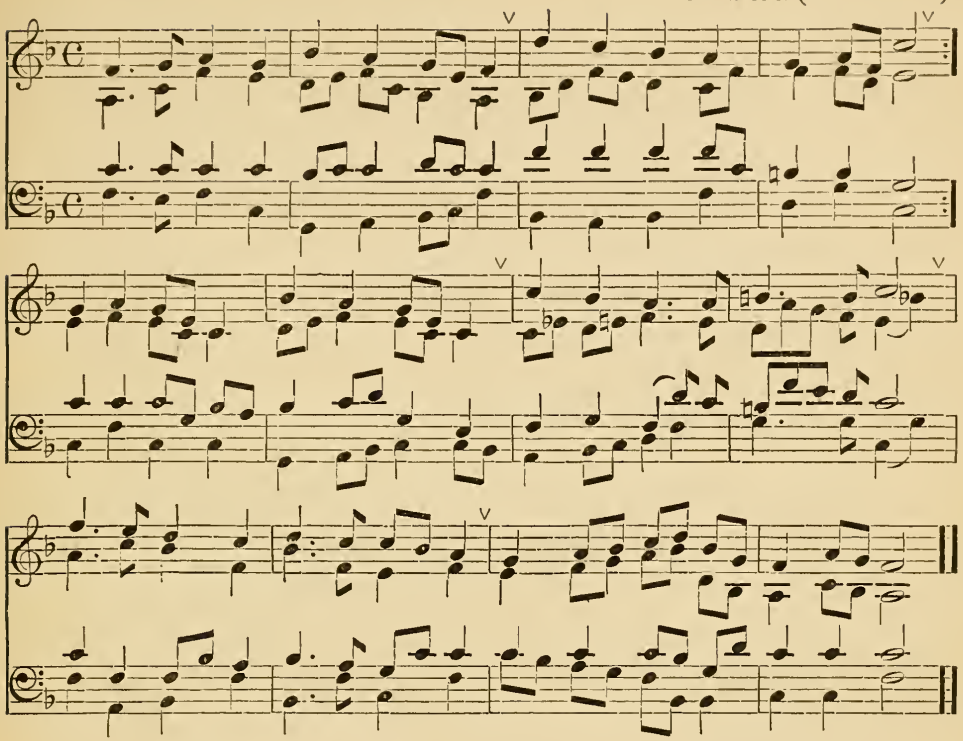
J. Haydn (1732 — 1809).



1 Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God;
He, whose word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for his own abode;
On the Rock of ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou mayst smile at all thy foes.

2 See, the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal love,
Still supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove:
Who can faint while such a river
Ever flows our thirst to assuage?
Grace, which, like the Lord the giver,
Never fails from age to age.

3 Round each habitation hovering,
See the cloud and fire appear,
For a glory and a covering,
Showing that the Lord is near!
He who gives us daily manna,
He who listens when we cry,
Let him hear the loud hosanna
Rising to his throne on high.

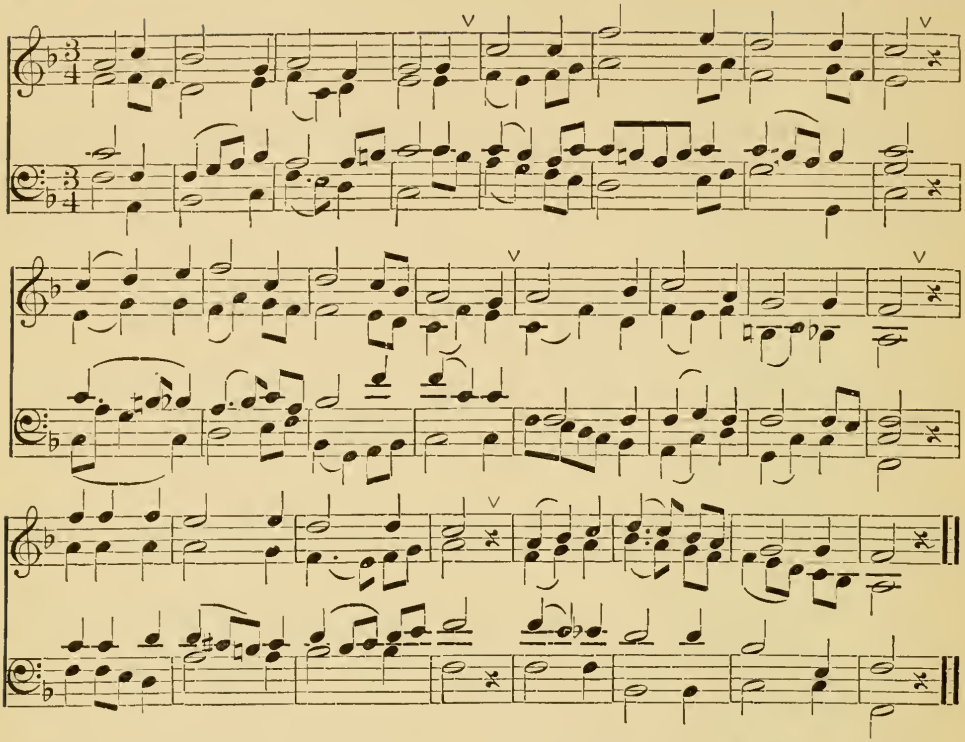
German Choral.



1 I will praise thee, Sun of Glory!
For thy beams have gladness brought;
I will praise thee, will adore thee,
For the light I vainly sought;
Will praise thee that thy words so blest,
Spake my sin-sick soul to rest.

2 In thy footsteps now uphold me,
That I stumble not nor stray,
When the narrow way is told me,
Never let me lingering stay.
But come, my weary soul to cheer,
Shine, eternal Sunbeam here!

3 Be my heart more warmly glowing,
Sweet and calm the tears I shed;
And its love, its ardor showing,
Let my spirit onward tread
Still near to thee, and nearer still,
Draw this heart, this mind, this will.

4 I will love, in joy and sorrow!
Crowning joy! will love thee well!
I will love, to-day, to-morrow,
While I in this body dwell.
Oh! I will love thee, Light Divine,
Till I die, and find thee mine!

JOHANN SCHEFFLER (ANGELUS).

1 Sing with all the sons of glory,
Sing the resurrection song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
To the former days belong:
All around the clouds are breaking,
Soon the storms of time shall cease,
In God's likeness, man awaking,
Knows the everlasting peace.

2 O what glory, far exceeding
All that eye has yet perceived!
Holiest hearts for ages pleading,
Never that full joy conceived.
God has promised, Christ prepares it,
There on high our welcome waits;
Every humble spirit shares it,
Christ has passed the eternal gates.

3 Life eternal! heaven rejoices,
Jesus lives who once was dead;
Join, O man, the deathless voices,
Child of God, lift up thy head!
Patriarchs from the distant ages,
Saints all longing for their heaven,
Prophets, psalmists, seers and sages,
All await the glory given.

4 Life eternal! O what wonders
Crowd on faith; what joy unknown,
When, amidst earth's closing thunders,
Saints shall stand before the throne!
O to enter that bright portal,
See that glowing firmament,
Know, with thee, O God immortal,
"Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent."

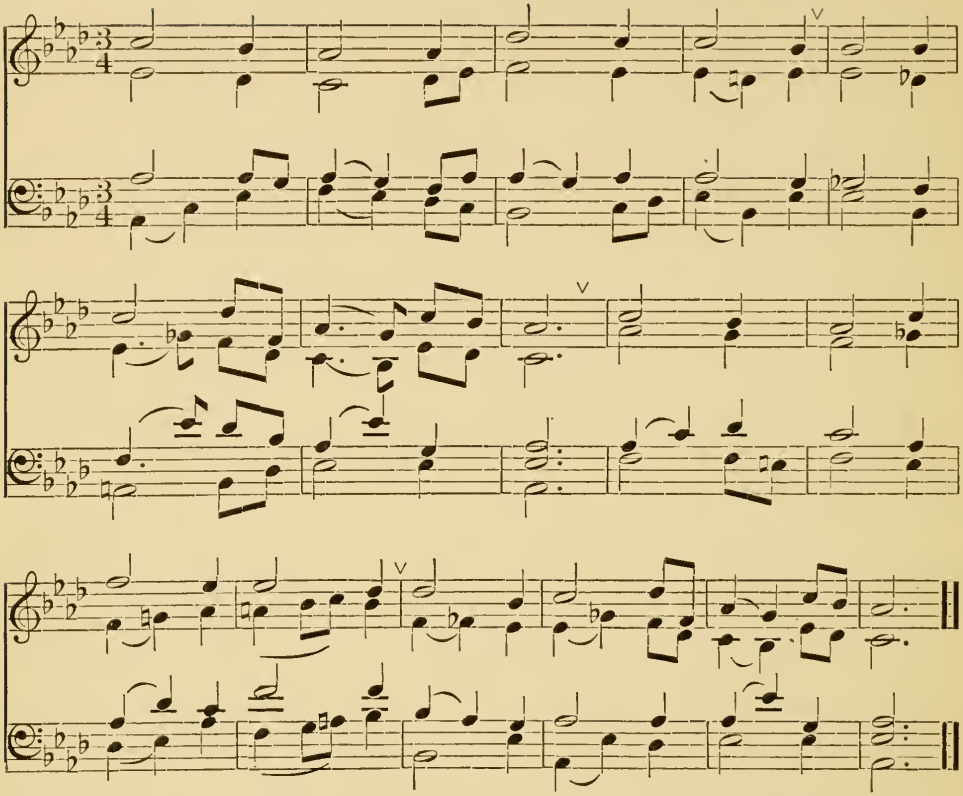
BEETHOVEN (1770—1827).



1 Laboring and heavy laden,
Wanting help in time of need,
Fainting by the way from hunger,
"Bread of life!" on thee we feed.

2 Thirsting for the springs of waters
That, by love's eternal law,
From the stricken Rock are flowing,
"Well of life!" from thee we draw.

3 In the land of cloud and shadow,
Where no human eye can see,
Light to those who sit in darkness,
"Light of life!" we walk in thee.

4 Thou the grace of life supplying,
Thou the crown of life wilt give;
Dead to sin, and daily dying,
"Life of life!" in thee we live.

1 Praise the Lord! ye heavens, adore him;
Praise him, angels, in the height;
Sun and moon; rejoice before him;
‖: Praise him, all ye stars of light. :‖

2 Praise the Lord, for he hath spoken;
Worlds his mighty voice obeyed;
Laws which never shall be broken,
For their guidance he hath made.

3 Praise the Lord, for he is glorious;
Never shall his promise fail;
God hath made his saints victorious;
Sin and death shall not prevail.

4 Praise the God of our salvation;
Hosts on high, his power proclaim;
Heaven and earth, and all creation,
Laud and magnify his name.

1 God is love; his mercy brightens
All the path in which we rove;
Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens;
God is wisdom, God is love.

2 Chance and change are busy ever;
Man decays, and ages move;
But his mercy waneth never;
God is wisdom, God is love.

3 E'en the hour that darkest seemeth,
Will his changeless goodness prove;
From the gloom his brightness streameth,
God is wisdom, God is love.

4 He with earthly cares entwineth
Hope and comfort from above;
Every-where his glory shineth;
God is wisdom, God is love.

1 Love divine, all love excelling,
Joy of heaven, to earth come down!
Fix in us thy humble dwelling;
All thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, thou art all compassion,
Pure unbounded love thou art;
Visit us with thy salvation;
Enter every trembling heart.

2 Breathe, O breathe thy loving Spirit
Into every troubled breast!
Let us all in thee inherit,
Let us find that second rest.
Take away our bent to sinning;
Alpha and Omega be;
End of faith, as its beginning,
Set our hearts at liberty.

3 Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all thy life receive;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more thy temples leave:
Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve thee as thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise thee without ceasing,
Glory in thy perfect love.

4 Finish then thy new creation;
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see thy great salvation,
Perfectly restored in thee:
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

1 Hark! what mean those holy voices,
Sweetly sounding through the skies?
Lo! the angelic host rejoices;
Heavenly hallelujahs rise.

2 Listen to the wondrous story,
Which they chant in hymns of joy:
"Glory in the highest, glory,
Glory be to God most high!

3 "Peace on earth, good-will from heaven,
Reaching far as man is found;
Souls redeemed and sins forgiven!
Loud our golden harps shall sound.

4 "Christ is born, the great Anointed;
Heaven and earth his praises sing;
O receive whom God appointed,
For your Prophet, Priest, and King.

5 "Hasten, mortals, to adore him;
Learn his name, and taste his joy;
Till in heaven ye sing before him,
'Glory be to God most high!'"

1 My country! 't is of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing:
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the pilgrims' pride!
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!

2 My native country, thee,
Land of the noble, free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills:
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God! to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!

1 Thou, whose almighty word
Chaos and darkness heard,
And took their flight;
Hear us, we humbly pray,
And where the gospel day
Sheds not its glorious ray,
"Let there be light."

2 Thou, who didst come to bring
On thy redeeming wing,
Healing and sight,
Health to the sick in mind,
Sight to the inly blind;
O now, to all mankind,
"Let there be light."

3 Spirit of truth and love,
Life-giving, holy Dove,
Speed forth thy flight;
Move o'er the waters' face
By thine almighty grace;
And in earth's darkest place,
"Let there be light."

4 Blessed and holy Three,
Glorious Trinity,
Wisdom, Love, Might;
Boundless as ocean's tide
Rolling in fullest pride,
O'er the world far and wide,
"Let there be light."

1 Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings,
Thy better portion trace;
Rise from transitory things
Toward heaven, thy native place:
Sun, and moon, and stars decay;
Time shall soon this earth remove;
Rise, my soul, and haste away
To seats prepared above.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course;
Fire ascending seeks the sun;
Both speed them to their source:
So a soul that's born of God,
Pants to view his glorious face;
Upward tends to his abode,
To rest in his embrace.

3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
Press onward to the prize;
Soon our Saviour will return
Triumphant in the skies:
There we'll join the heavenly train,
Welcomed to partake the bliss;
Fly from sorrow, care, and pain,
To realms of endless peace.

1 O could I speak the matchless worth,
O could I sound the glories forth,
Which in my Saviour shine,
I 'd soar and touch the heavenly strings,
And vie with Gabriel while he sings
‖: In notes almost divine. :‖

2 I 'd sing the precious blood he spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin, and wrath divine;
I 'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all-perfect, heavenly dress
‖: My soul shall ever shine. :‖

3 I 'd sing the characters he bears,
And all the forms of love he wears,
Exalted on his throne;
In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
I would to everlasting days
‖: Make all his glories known. :‖

4 Well, the delightful day will come
When my dear Lord will bring me home,
And I shall see his face;
Then with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
A blest eternity I 'll spend,
‖: Triumphant in his grace. :‖

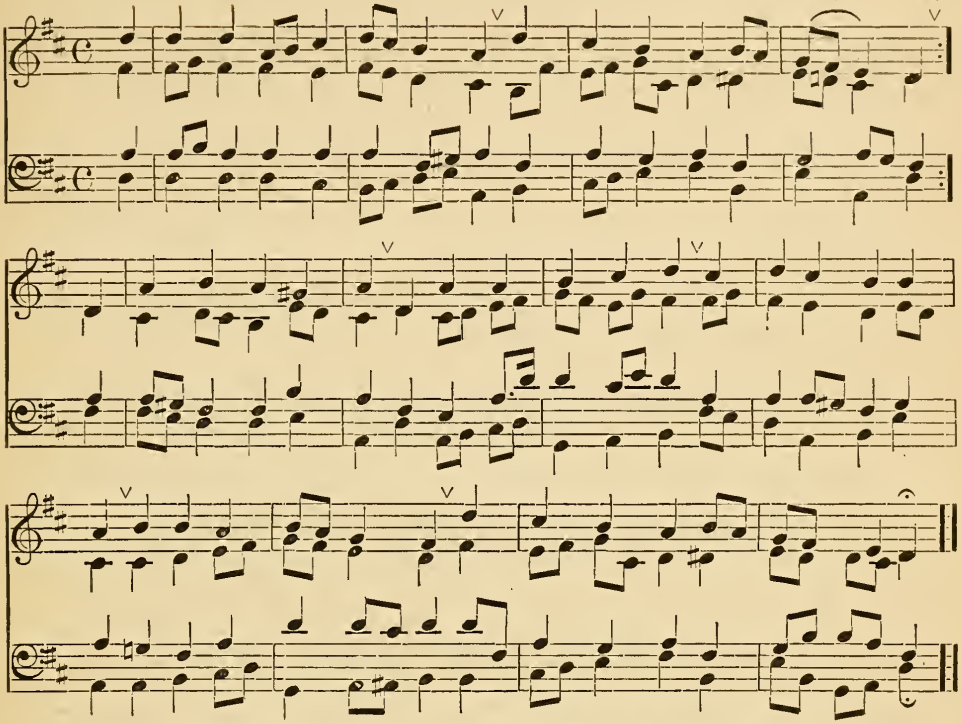
MARTIN LUTHER (1483—1546).



1 A mighty fortress is our God,
A bulwark never failing:
Our Helper he, amid the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe
Doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and power are great,
And, armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

2 Did we in our own strength confide,
Our striving would be losing;
Were not the right man on our side,
The man of God's own choosing.
Dost ask who that may be?
Christ Jesus, it is he;
Lord Sabaoth is his name,
From age to age the same,
And he must win the battle.

3 That word above all earthly powers—
No thanks to them—abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Through him who with us sideth.
Let goods and kindred go,
This mortal life also:
The body they may kill:
God's truth abideth still,
His kingdom is forever.

1 In the hour of trial,
Jesus, plead for me;
Lest by base denial
I depart from thee.
When thou seest me waver,
With a look recall,
Nor for fear or favor
Suffer me to fall.

2 Should thy mercy send me
Sorrow, toil and woe;
Or should pain attend me
On my path below:
Grant that I may never
Fail thy hand to see;
Grant that I may ever
Cast my care on thee.

3 When my last hour cometh
Fraught with strife, and pain,
When my dust returneth
To the dust again.
On thy truth relying
Through that mortal strife,
Jesus take me dying
To eternal life.

1 As pants the wearied hart for cooling springs,
That sinks exhausted in the summer's chase,
So pants my soul for thee, great King of kings,
So thirsts to reach thy sacred dwelling place.

2 Lord, thy sure mercies ever in my sight,
My heart shall gladden through the tedious day;
And 'midst the dark and gloomy shades of night,
To thee, my God, I 'll tune the grateful lay.

3 Why faint, my soul? why doubt Jehovah's aid?
Thy God the God of mercy still shall prove;
Within his courts thy thanks shall yet be paid:
Unquestion'd be his faithfulness and love.

1 Saviour, again to thy dear name we raise,
With one accord, our parting hymn of praise;
We stand to bless thee ere our worship cease,
Then lowly kneeling, wait thy word of peace.

2 Grant us thy peace upon our homeward way;
With thee began, with thee shall end the day;
Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
That in this house have called upon thy name.

3 Grant us thy peace, Lord, through the coming night,
Turn thou for us its darkness into light;
From harm and danger keep thy children free,
For dark and light are both alike to thee.

4 Grant us thy peace throughout our earthly life,
Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife;
Then, when thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
Call us, O Lord, to thine eternal peace.

1 Christ is coming! let creation
Bid her groans and travail cease;
Let the glorious proclamation
Hope restore and faith increase;
‖: Christ is coming! :‖
Come, thou blessed Prince of peace!

2 Earth can now but tell the story
Of thy bitter cross and pain;
She shall yet behold thy glory
When thou comest back to reign;
‖: Christ is coming! :‖
Let each heart repeat the strain.

3 Long thy exiles have been pining,
Far from rest, and home, and thee;
But, in heavenly vesture shining,
Soon they shall thy glory see;
‖: Christ is coming! :‖
Haste the joyous jubilee.

4 With that "blessed hope" before us,
Let no harp remain unstrung;
Let the mighty advent chorus
Onward roll from tongue to tongue;
‖: Christ is coming! :‖
Come, Lord Jesus, quickly come!

1 Thy way, not mine, O Lord,
However dark it be!
Lead me by thine own hand;
Choose out the path for me.
I dare not choose my lot;
I would not if I might;
Choose thou for me, my God,
So shall I walk aright.

2 The kingdom that I seek
Is thine; so let the way
That leads to it be thine,
Else I must surely stray.
Take thou my cup, and it
With joy or sorrow fill,
As best to thee may seem;
Choose thou my good and ill.

3 Choose thou for me my friends.
My sickness or my health;
Choose thou my cares for me,
My poverty or wealth.
Not mine, not mine the choice,
In things or great or small;
Be thou my guide, my strength,
My wisdom, and my all.

1 O holy Saviour, Friend unseen,
Since on thine arm thou bidst me lean,
Help me, throughout life's changing scene,
By faith to cling to thee!

2 What though the world deceitful prove,
Our earthly friends and hopes remove,
With patient, uncomplaining love,
Still would I cling to thee!

3 Though oft I seem to tread alone
Life's dreary waste, with thorns o'ergrown,
Thy voice of love, in gentlest tone,
Still whispers: "Cling to me!"

4 Though faith and hope are often tried,
I ask not, need not, aught beside;
So safe, so calm, so satisfied,
The soul that clings to thee!

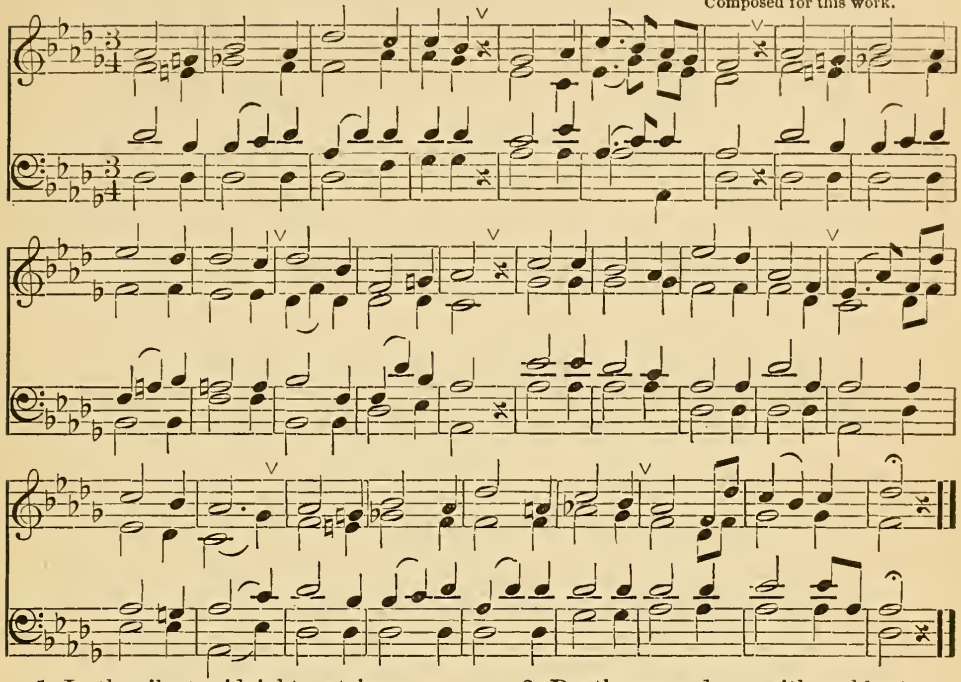
No. 89. IN THE SILENT MIDNIGHT WATCHES. 8s & 5s.

G. A. Hermann (1872—).
Composed for this work.



1 In the silent midnight watches,
List — thy bosom's door!
How it knocketh, knocketh, knocketh,
Knocketh evermore!
Say not 't is thy pulse's beating,
'T is thy heart of sin;
'T is thy Saviour knocks, and crieth,
"Rise, and let me in!"

2 Death comes down with reckless footsteps,
To the hall and hut;
Think you death will tarry knocking,
When the door is shut?
Jesus waiteth, waiteth, waiteth;
But the door is fast;
Grieved, away thy Saviour goeth,
Death breaks in at last.

3 Then 't is time to stand entreating
Christ to let thee in;
At the gate of heaven beating,
Wailing for thy sin;
Nay! alas, thou guilty creature!
Hast thou, then, forgot?
Jesus waited long to know thee,
Now He knows thee not!

1 Rise, glorious Conqueror, rise
Into thy native skies;
Assume thy right;
And where in many a fold
The clouds are backward rolled,
Pass through those gates of gold,
And reign in light!

2 Victor o'er death and hell,
Cherubic legions swell
The radiant train:
Praises all heaven inspire;
Each angel sweeps his lyre,
And claps his wings of fire,
Thou Lamb once slain!

3 Enter, incarnate God!
No feet but thine have trod
The serpent down:
Blow the full trumpets, blow,
Wider yon portals throw,
Saviour, triumphant, go,
And take thy crown!

4 Lion of Judah, hail!
And let thy name prevail
From age to age:
Lord of the rolling years,
Claim for thine own the spheres,
For thou hast bought with tears
Thy heritage.

1 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From victory unto victory
His army shall he lead,
Till every foe is vanquished
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this his glorious day:
"Ye that are men, now serve him,"
Against unnumbered foes;
Your courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you;
Ye dare not trust your own:
Put on the gospel armor,
Each piece put on with prayer;
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song:
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of glory
Shall reign eternally.

1 Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad his wonderful name;
The name all-victorious of Jesus extol;
His kingdom is glorious, and rules over all.

2 God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
And still he is nigh; his presence we have:
The great congregation his triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus, our King.

3 "Salvation to God, who sits on the throne,"
Let all cry aloud, and honor the Son:
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces, and worship the Lamb.

4 Then let us adore, and give him his right,
All glory and power, all wisdom and might,
All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing for infinite love.

1 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee;
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!

2 Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide thee,
Though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see;
Only thou art holy; there is none beside thee,
Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

4 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth, and sky, and sea;
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!

1 Onward, Christian soldiers!
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before.
Christ, the royal Master,
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See his banners go!
Onward, Christian soldiers!
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before.

2 At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On, then, Christian soldiers,
On to victory!
Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,
Loud your anthems raise.

3 Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail.

4 Onward, then, ye people!
Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph-song;
Glory, laud, and honor
Unto Christ the King,
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.

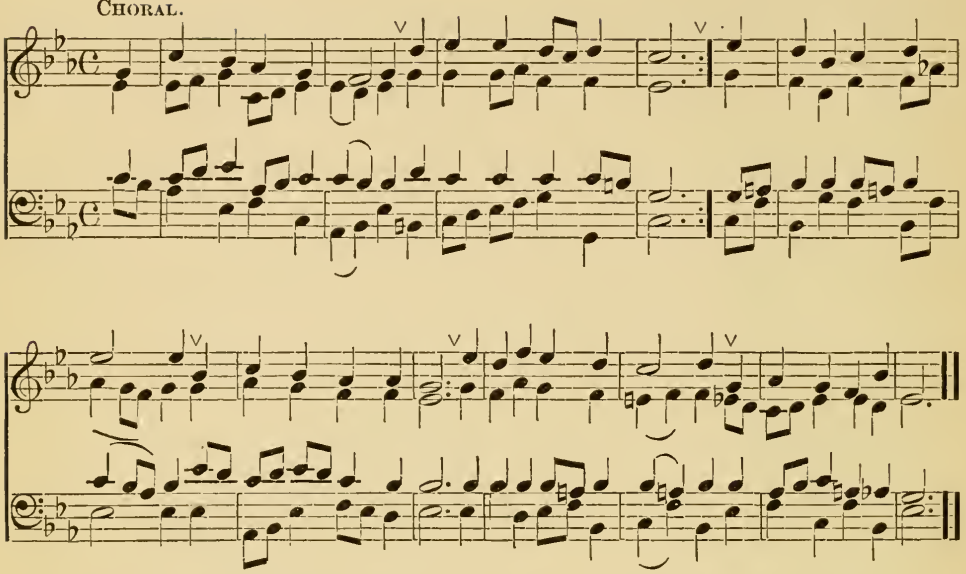
No. 95. O SACRED HEAD. 7s & 6s.

K. H. Graun (1701—1759).

Choral.



1 O sacred Head, now wounded,
With grief and shame weighed down,
Now scornfully surrounded
With thorns, thine only crown;
O sacred Head, what glory,
What bliss, till now was thine!
Yet, though despised and gory,
I joy to call thee mine.

2 What thou, my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinners' gain:
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But thine the deadly pain:
Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
'T is I deserve thy place;
Look on me with thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me thy grace.

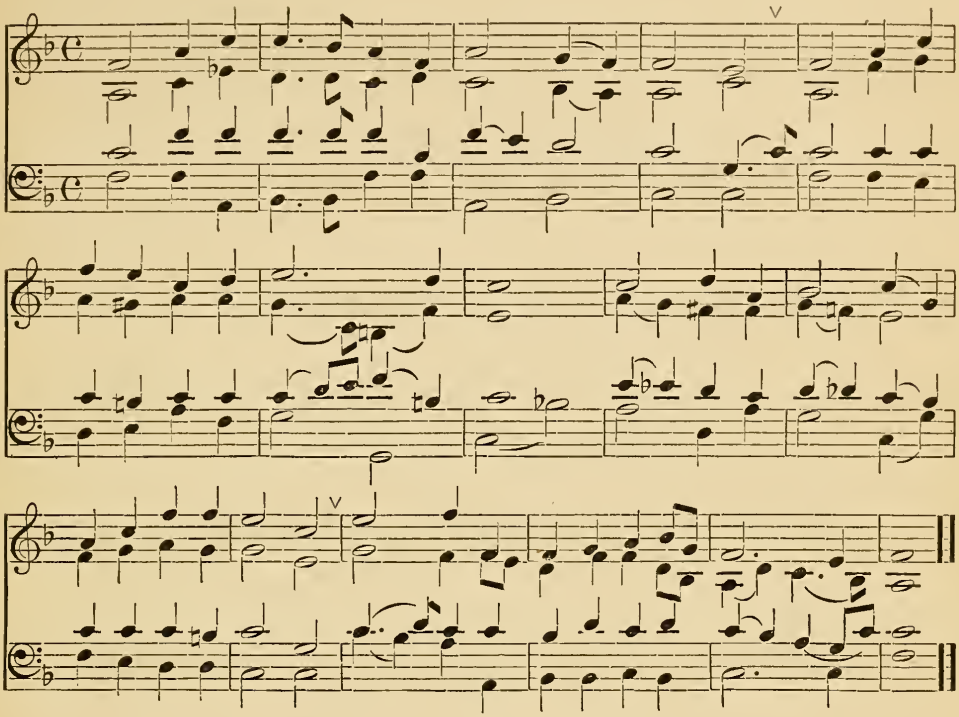
3 What language shall I borrow
To thank thee, dearest Friend,
For this, thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
O make me thine forever;
And should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never,
Outlive my love to thee.

4 Be near me when I 'm dying,
O show thy cross to me;
And, for my succor flying,
Come, Lord, and set me free:
These eyes, new faith receiving,
From Jesus shall not move;
For he who dies believing,
Dies safely, through thy love.

Bernard of Clairvaux, Paul Gerhardt.
Tr. by J. W. Alexander (1091—1153).

No. 96. PAX DEI. 11s & 10s.

Rev. J. B. Dykes (1823—1876).



1 Come unto me, when shadows darkly gather,
When the sad heart is weary and distressed,
Seeking for comfort from your heavenly Father,
Come unto me, and I will give you rest.

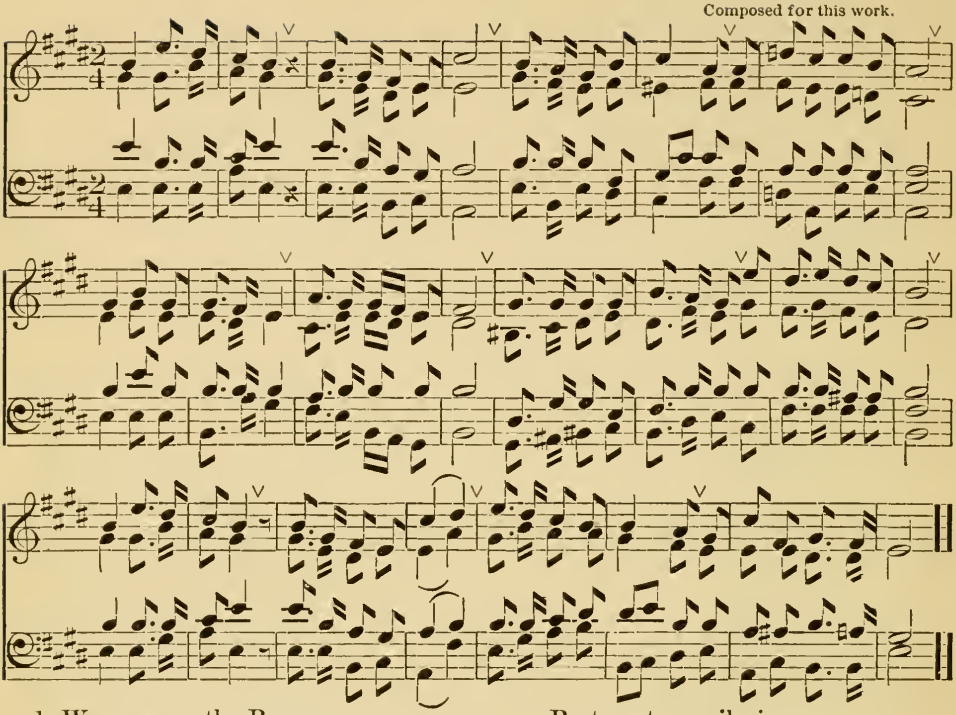
2 Large are the mansions in thy Father's dwelling,
Glad are the homes that sorrows never dim;
Sweet are the harps in holy music swelling,
Soft are the tones which raise the heavenly hymn.

3 There, like an Eden blossoming in gladness,
Bloom the fair flowers the earth too rudely pressed;
Come unto me, all ye who droop in sadness,
Come unto me, and I will give you rest.

Unknown.

No. 97. ST. PAUL'S.

Rev. J. S. B. Hodges, D. D.
Composed for this work.



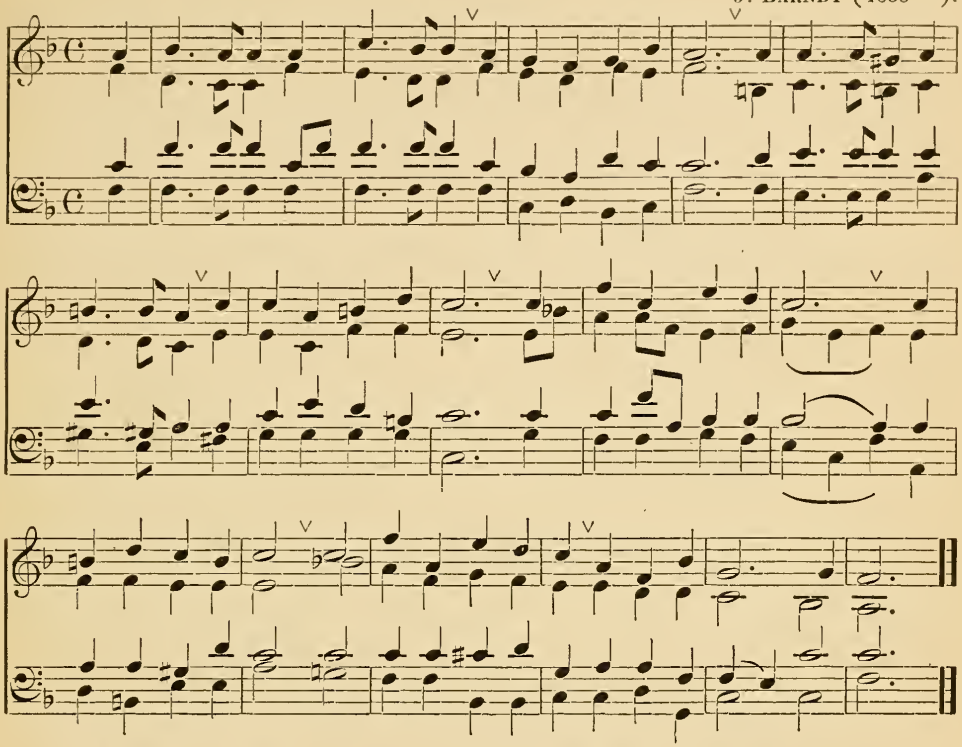
1 Wave, wave the Banner,
Raise the cross on high,
Sing of Jesus' glory,
Of Christ who deigned to die.
On, on, ye wanderers,
Homeward wend your way,
Dark may be the evening,
But brighter far the day.
Wave, wave, etc.

2 Wave, wave the Banner,
See! a Cross is nigh,
Jesus on it hangeth,
Lifted up on high.
Rest, rest, ye pilgrims,
Rest beneath the Tree,
Hark! He gently calleth,
Sinners, come to me.
Wave, wave, etc.

3 Shout, shout, ye victors.
Ye whose fight is done,
Ye whose toil is over,
Whose crown of life is won
On, on, ye wanderers,
Homeward wend your way,
Dark may be the evening,
But brighter far the day.
Wave, wave, etc.

No. 98. PARADISE. 8s, 6s & 6s.

J. Barnby (1838—).



1 O paradise! O paradise!
Who doth not crave for rest?
Who would not seek the happy land
Where they that loved are blest;
Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight?

2 O paradise! O paradise!
The world is growing old;
Who would not be at rest and free
Where love is never cold?

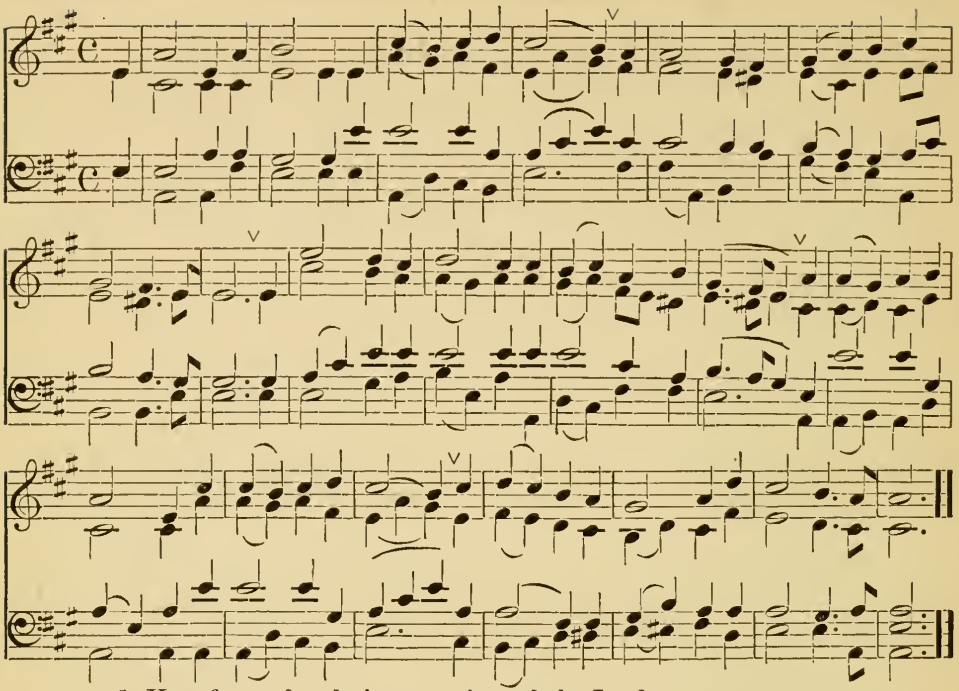
3 O paradise! O paradise!
'T is weary waiting here;
I long to be where Jesus is,
To feel, to see him near.

4 O paradise! O paradise!
I want to sin no more,
I want to be as pure on earth
As on thy spotless shore.

5 O paradise! O paradise!
I greatly long to see
The special place my dearest Lord
In love prepares for me.

Rev. Frederick W. Faber, D. D. (1815—1863).

No. 99. PORTUGUESE HYMN. 11s.



1 How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word!
What more can he say, than to you he hath said,
‖: To you, who for refuge to Jesus have fled? :‖

2 "Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dismayed,
For I am thy God, I will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my gracious, omnipotent hand.

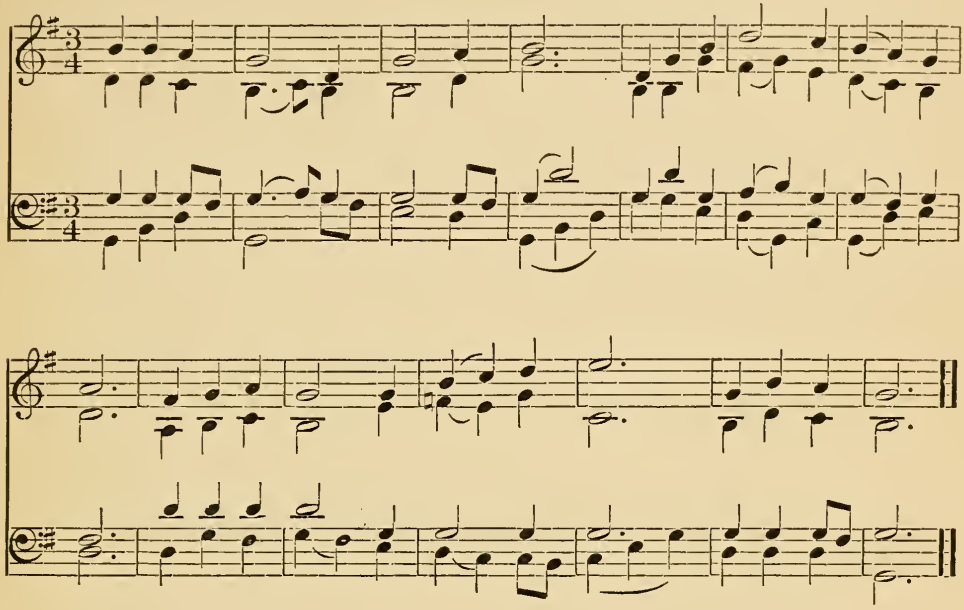
3 "When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not overflow;
For I will be with thee thy trials to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

4 "The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,
I will not, I will not desert to his foes;
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never, no never, no never forsake!"

 GEORGE KEITH, 1787.

No. 100. PRAYER. 8s, 8s, 8s & 4s.

Rev. J. B. Dykes (1823—1876).



1 My God, is any hour so sweet,
From blush of morn to evening star,
As that which calls me to thy feet,
The hour of prayer?

2 Blest is that tranquil hour of morn,
And blest that solemn hour of eve,
When, on the wings of prayer upborne,
The world I leave.

3 Then is my strength by thee renewed;
Then are my sins by thee forgiven;
Then dost thou cheer my solitude
With hopes of heaven.

4 No words can tell what sweet relief
Here for my every want I find;
What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What peace of mind.

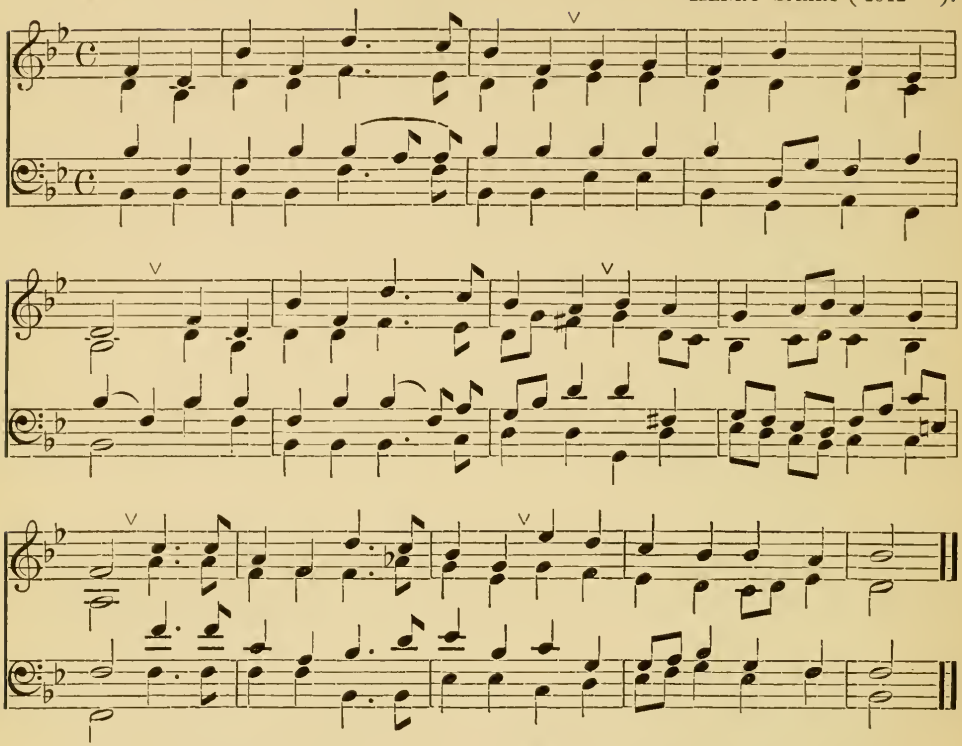
5 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear;
My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
And e'en the penitential tear
Is wiped away.

6 Lord, till I reach that blissful shore,
No privilege so dear shall be,
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In prayer to thee.

Charlotte Elliott (1789—1871).

No. 101. REGENT SQUARE. 8s, 7s & 4s. 6 lines.

HENRY SMART (1812—).



1 O thou God of my salvation,
My Redeemer from all sin;
Moved by thy divine compassion,
Who hast died my heart to win,
‖: I will praise thee; :‖
Where shall I thy praise begin?

2 Though unseen, I love the Saviour;
He hath brought salvation near;
Manifests his pardoning favor;
And when Jesus doth appear,
‖: Soul and body :‖
Shall his glorious image bear.

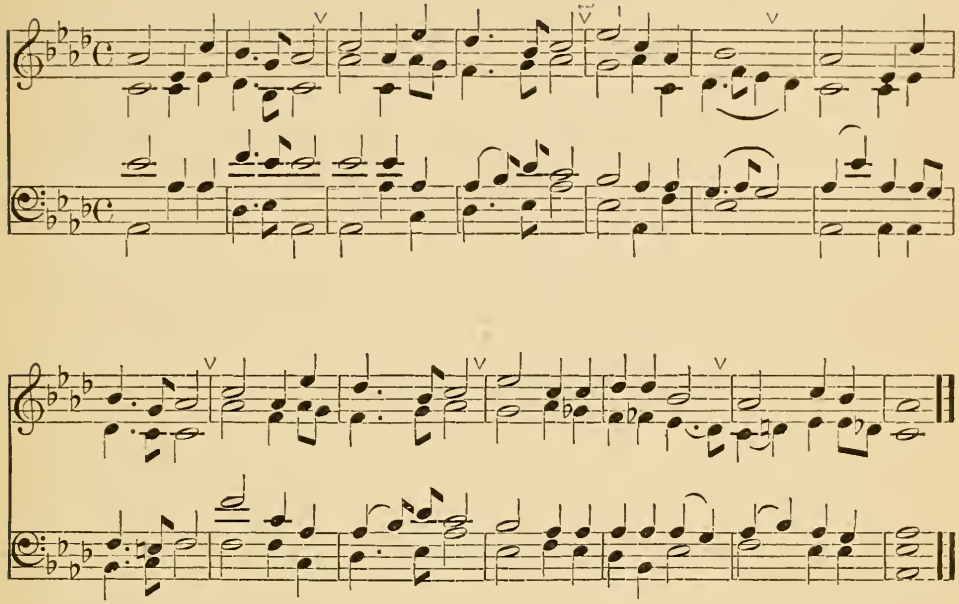
3 While the angel choirs are crying,
"Glory to the great I AM,"
I with them will still be vying —
Glory! glory to the Lamb!
‖: O how precious :‖
Is the sound of Jesus' name!

4 Angels now are hovering round us,
Unperceived amid the throng;
Wondering at the love that crowned us,
Glad to join the holy song:
‖: Hallelujah! :‖
Love and praise to Christ belong!

REV. THOMAS OLIVERS (1725—1799).

No. 102. RIGHINI. 6s & 4s.

Z. Righini (1756—1812).



1 Come, Holy Ghost, in love,
Shed on us from above
Thine own bright ray!
Divinely good thou art;
Thy sacred gifts impart
To gladden each sad heart:
O come to-day!

2 Come, tenderest Friend, and best,
Our most delightful Guest,
With soothing power:
Rest, which the weary know,
Shade, 'mid the noontide glow,
Peace, when deep griefs o'erflow,
Cheer us, this hour!

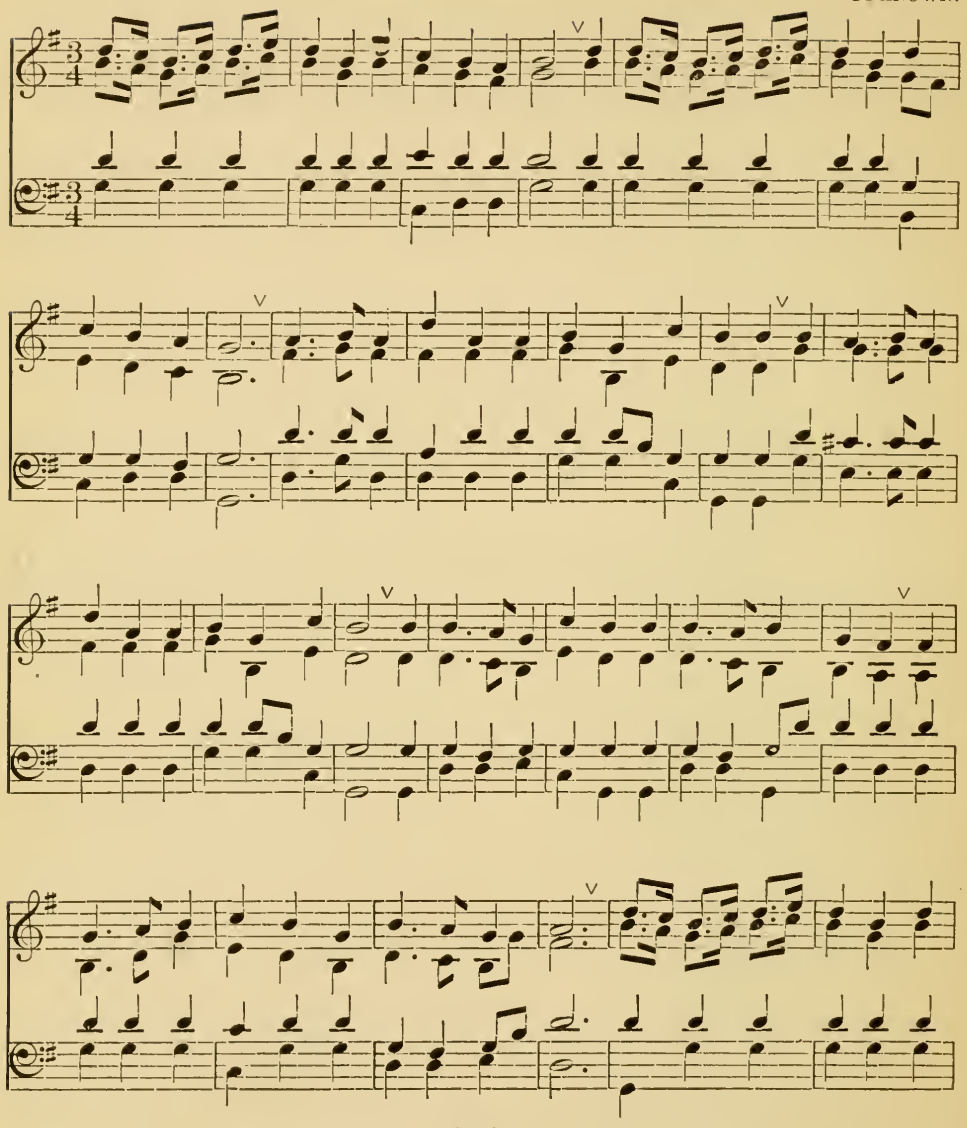
3 Come, Light serene, and still
Our inmost bosoms fill;
Dwell in each breast;
We know no dawn but thine,
Send forth thy beams divine,
On our dark souls to shine,
And make us blest!

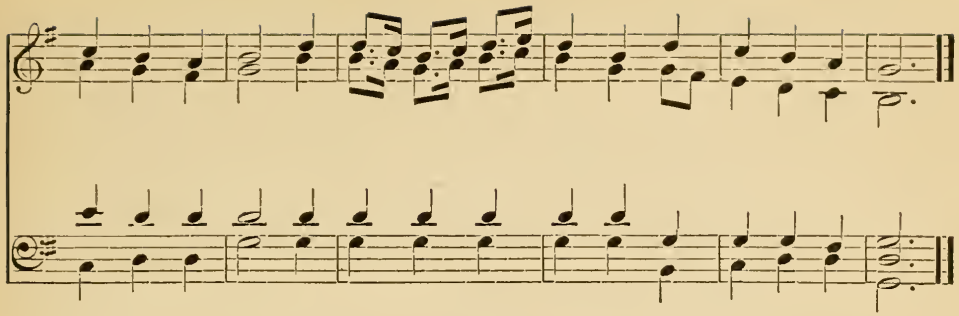
4 Come, all the faithful bless;
Let all who Christ confess
His praise employ:
Give virtue's rich reward;
Victorious death accord,
And, with our glorious Lord,
Eternal joy!

Robert II., King of France (972—1031).
Tr. by R. Palmer.

No. 103. TRUMPET. 10s, 11s & 12s.

UNKNOWN.





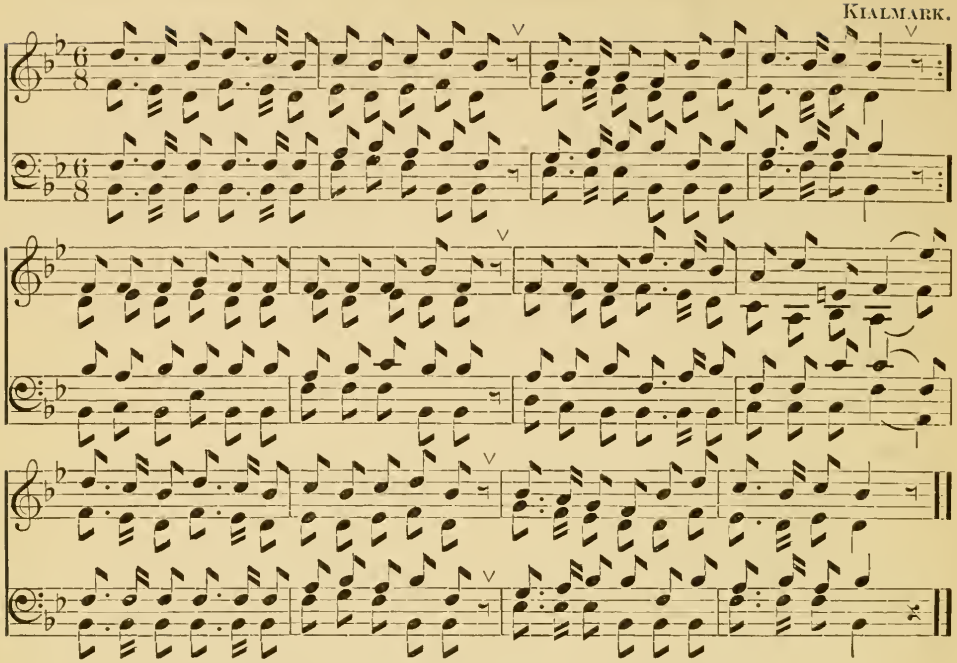
1 Lift your glad voices in triumph on high,
For Jesus hath risen, and man shall not die;
Vain were the terrors that gathered around him,
And short the dominion of death and the grave;
He burst from the fetters of darkness that bound him,
Resplendent in glory, to live and to save:
Loud was the chorus of angels on high,—
The Saviour hath risen, and man shall not die.

2 Glory to God, in full anthems of joy;
The being he gave us, death cannot destroy:
Sad were the life we may part with to-morrow,
If tears were our birthright, and death were our end;
But Jesus hath cheered the dark valley of sorrow,
And bade us, immortal, to heaven ascend:
Lift then your voices in triumph on high,
For Jesus hath risen, and man shall not die.

Rev. Henry Ware, Jr., D.D. (1793—1843).

No. 104. THE STAR OF THE EAST. 11s, 10s.

KIALMARK.



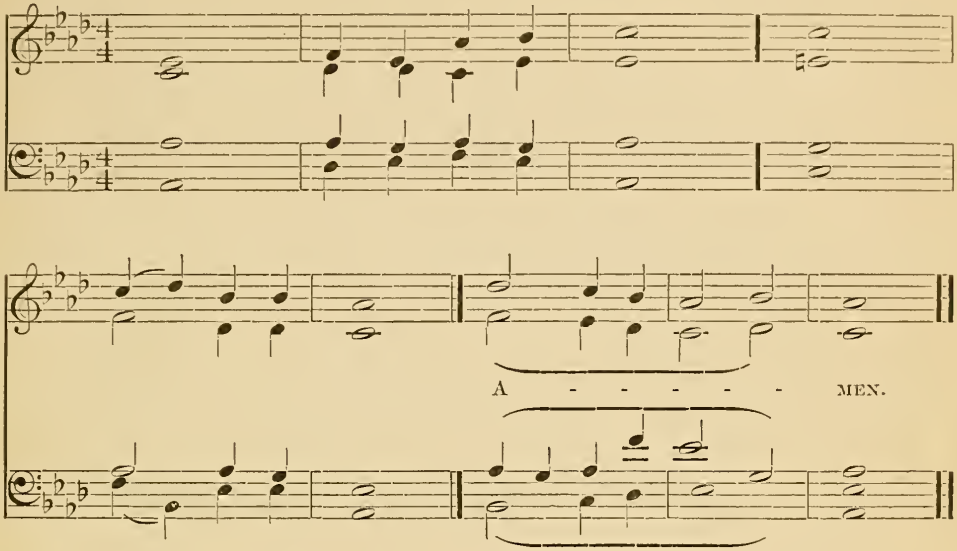
1 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.
Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining;
Low lies his bed with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him, in slumber reclining, —
Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all.

2 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine?
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?
Vainly we offer each ample oblation;
Vainly with gifts would his favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration;
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

BISHOP REGINALD HEBER, D.D. (1783—).

No. 105. THY WILL BE DONE. (Chant.)

H. Schwing (1825—).



1 Father, I know thy ways are just,
Although to me unknown;
O grant me grace thy love to trust,
And cry, "Thy will be done."

2 If thou shouldst hedge with thorns my path,
Should wealth and friends be gone;
Still, with a firm and lively faith,
I'll cry, "Thy will be done."

3 Although thy steps I cannot trace,
Thy sovereign right I'll own;
And, as instructed by thy grace,
I'll cry, "Thy will be done."

4 'T is sweet thus passively to lie
Be*fore thy gracious* throne,
Concerning everything to cry,
"My Father's will be done."

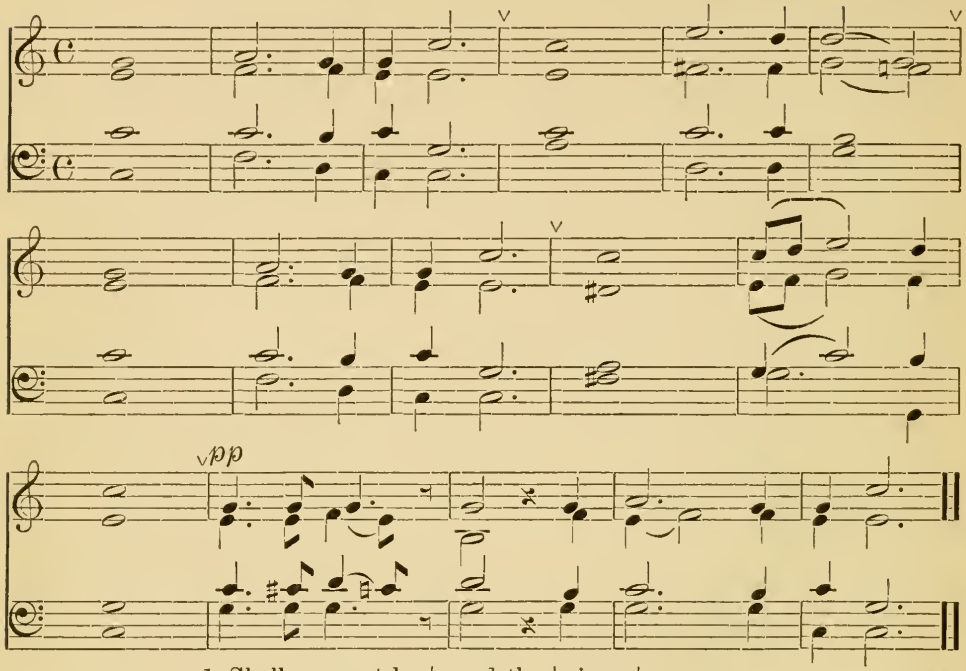
No. 106. SHALL WE MEET BEYOND THE RIVER? (Chant.)

UNKNOWN.



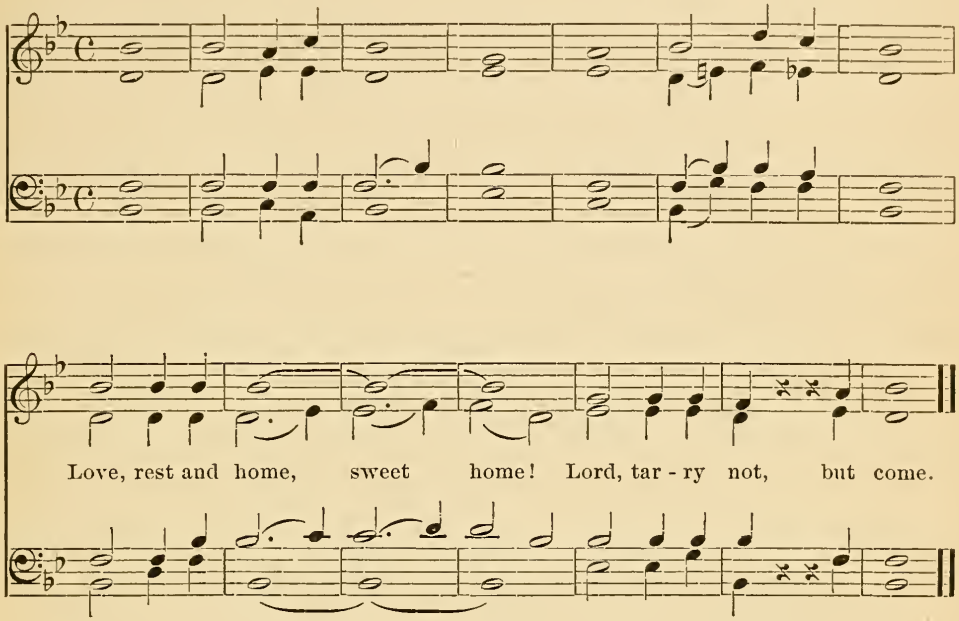
1 Shall we meet be | yond the | river, |
Where the surges | cease to | roll? |
Where the blessed | sing for | ever,
Songs that fill the | raptured | soul? |
Shall we meet? | Yes! be- | yond the | river.

2 Shall we meet with | all the | loved ones, |
That were torn from | our em | brace? |
Shall we listen | to their | voices, |
And behold them | face to | face?
Shall we meet? | Yes! be- | yond the | river.

3 Shall we meet with | Christ our | Saviour, |
When he comes to | claim his | own? |
Shall we know his | blessed | favor, |
And behold him | on his | throne? |
Shall we meet? | Yes! be- | yond the | river.

No. 107. BEYOND! (Chant.)

W. A. Tarbutton (1817 — 1885).



1 Beyond the smiling and the weeping, |
I shall be | soon;
Beyond the waking and the sleeping, |
Beyond the sowing and the reaping, |
I shall be | soon.

2 Beyond the blooming and the fading, |
I shall be | soon;
Beyond the shining and the shading, |
Beyond the hoping and the dreading |
I shall be | soon.

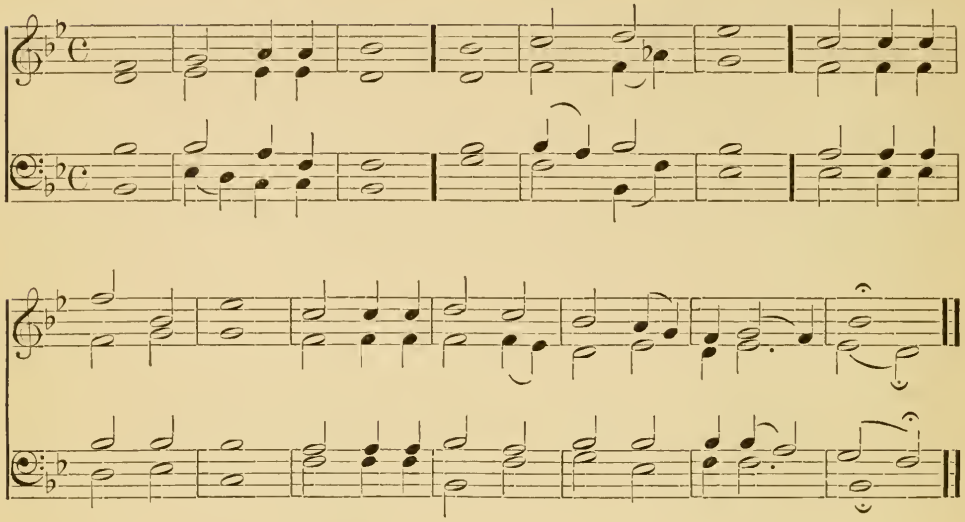
3 Beyond the rising and the setting, |
I shall be | soon;
Beyond the calming and the fretting, |
Beyond remembering and forgetting, |
I shall be | soon.

4 Beyond the parting and the meeting, |
I shall be | soon;
Beyond the farewell and the greeting |
Beyond the pulse's fever beating, |
I shall be | soon.

5 Beyond the frost-chain and the fever, |
I shall be | soon;
Beyond the rock-waste and the river, |
Beyond the ever and the never. |
I shall be | soon.

No. 108. NEARER, MY GOD, TO THEE! (Chant.)

HENRY SCHWING (1825 —).



1 Nearer, my God, to thee, |
Nearer to | thee!
E'en though it be a cross
That | raiseth | me;
Still all my | song shall | be, |
Nearer, my | God, to | thee,
Nearer to | thee!

2 Though like a wanderer,
The | sun gone | down,
Darkness be over me,
My | rest a | stone;
Yet in my | dreams I'd | be
Nearer, my | God, to | thee,
Nearer to | thee.

3 There let the way appear, |
Steps unto heaven;
All that thou sendest me,
In | mercy | given;
Angels to | beckon | me
Nearer, my | God to | thee.
Nearer to | thee!

4 Then, with my waking thoughts, |
Bright with thy | praise,
Out of my stony griefs, |
Bethel I'll | raise;
So by my | woes to | be
Nearer, my | God, to | thee.
Nearer to | thee.

5 Or if on joyful wing, |
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot |
Upward I | fly;
Still all my | song shall | be,—
Nearer, my | God, to | thee,
Nearer to | thee!

MRS. SARAH F. ADAMS (1805—1849).

No. 109. DE PROFUNDIS. (Chant.)

Ps. 130. (Revised Version.)

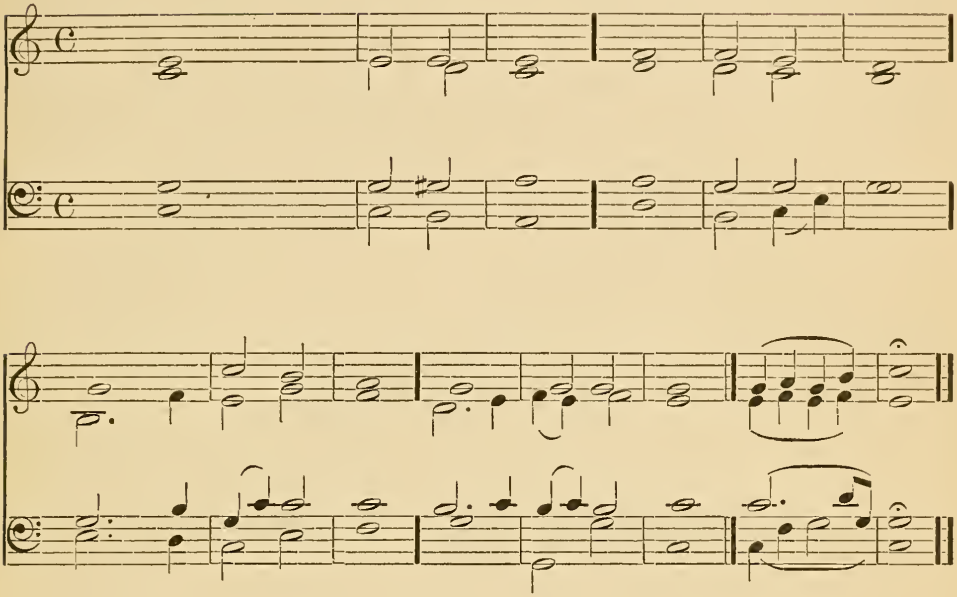
Arranged by Dr. W. H. Hopkins.



1 Out of the depths have I cried unto | thee, O | Lord. ‖
Lord, | hear my | voice. ‖
Let thine ears be attentive |
To the | voice |
Of my | suppli- | cations. ‖

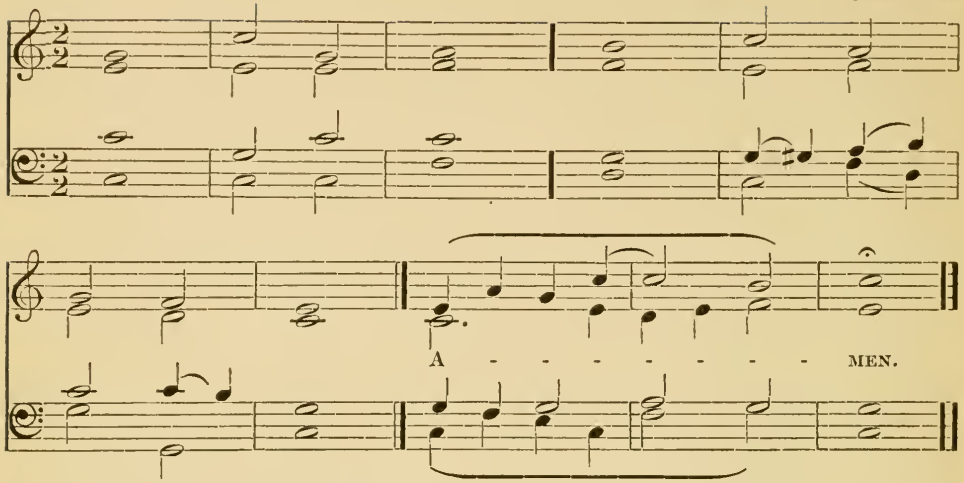
2 If thou, Lord, shouldest |
Mark in- | iquities, |
O Lord, | who shall | stand? ‖
But there is forgiveness |
With— | thee, ‖
That thou | mayest be | feared. ‖

3 I wait for the Lord, my |
Soul doth | wait, ‖
And in his word | do I | hope. ‖
My soul looketh for the Lord more than watchmen look |
For the | morning. ‖
Yea, more than watchmen |
For the | morning. ‖

4 O Israel, hope in the Lord; for with the [Lord |
There is | mercy, ‖
And with him is | plenteous re- | demption. ‖
And he shall re- | deem— | Israel |
From | all his in- | iquities. ‖ A-men.

No. 110. COME TO ME. (Chant.)

UNKNOWN.



1 With tearful eyes I look around,
Life seems a dark and stormy sea;
Yet, 'midst the gloom, I hear a sound,
A heavenly whisper: "Come to me."

2 It tells me of a place of rest —
It tells me where my soul may flee;
Oh! to the weary, faint, oppressed,
How sweet the bidding: "Come to me."

3 When nature shudders, loth to part
From all I love, enjoy and see,
When a faint chill steals o'er my heart,
A sweet voice utters: "Come to me."

4 Come, for all else must fade and die,
Earth is no resting place for thee;
Heavenward direct thy weeping eye,
I am thy portion: "Come to me."

5 O voice of mercy! voice of love!
In conflict, grief and agony,
Support me, cheer me from above!
And gently whisper: "Come to me."

No. 111. GLORIA PATRI. (Chant.)

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

	NO.
All hail the power of Jesus' name	7
A mighty fortress is our God	81
As pants the wearied hart	83
As shadows, cast by cloud and sun	14
As with gladness men of old	59
As with gladness men of old	61
Awake, and sing the song	52
Before Jehovah's awful throne	34
Behold the throne of grace	55
Beyond the smiling and the weeping	107
Blest hour, when mortal man retires	33
Brightest and best of the sons	104
Chief of sinners though I be	66
Christ is coming! let creation	86
Come, Holy Ghost, in love	102
Come, let us tune our loftiest song	41
Come, sound his praise abroad	53
Come unto me, when shadows	96
Crown him with many crowns	47
Faith of our fathers, living still	44
Father, I know thy ways are just	105
Father of heaven, whose love profound	45
From every stormy wind that blows	32
Glorious things of thee are spoken	68
Glory be to the Father	111
Glory be to God on high	60
God is love; his mercy brightens	73
God moves in a mysterious way	9
Had I the gift of tongues	54
Happy the man who finds the grace	31
Hark, my soul! it is the Lord	56
Hark! what mean those holy voices	76
~~Head of the church whose spirit fills~~	~~37~~
He leadeth me! O blessed thought	42
Holy as thou, O Lord, is none	26
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty	93
Holy Spirit, Truth Divine	64
~~Honor and glory, thanksgiving~~	~~84~~
How beauteous are their feet	51
How firm a foundation	99
If, on a quiet sea	46
I heard the voice of Jesus say	21
In the hour of trial	82
In the silent midnight watches	89
It is not death to die	50
It may not be our lot to wield	24
I was a wandering sheep	48
I will praise thee, Sun of Glory	69
Jerusalem the golden	58
Jesus, Lover of my soul	57
Jesus my Advocate above	25
Jesus, my Truth, my Way	49
Jesus, the sinners' Friend, to thee	28
Jesus, the very thought of thee	12
Jesus, thou joy of loving hearts	35

	NO.
Joy to the world! the Lord is come	2
Just as I am, without one plea	45
Laboring and heavy laden	71
Let every tongue thy goodness speak	23
Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates	30
Lift your glad voices in triumph	103
Lord, as to thy dear cross we flee	18
Lord, in the morning thou shalt hear	22
Lord of all being! throned afar	29
Love divine, all love excelling	74
Love divine, all love excelling	75
My country! 't is of thee	77
My God, is any hour so sweet	100
My hope is built on nothing less	39
My Saviour on the word of truth	19
Nearer, my God, to thee	108
Never further than Thy cross	65
New every morning is the love	27
O Christ, who hast prepared a place	38
O come, Creator, Spirit blest	40
O could I speak the matchless worth	80
O for a heart to praise my God	4
O God, to thee we raise our eyes	37
Oh, it is hard to work for God	15
O holy Saviour, Friend unseen	88
O Jesus, King most wonderful	11
Onward, Christian soldiers	94
O Paradise! O Paradise	98
O sacred Head, now wounded	95
O Sun of righteousness, arise	5
O Thou God of my salvation	101
Out of the depths have I cried	109
Praise the Lord! ye heavens adore him	72
Prayer is the breath of God in man	17
Rise, glorious Conqueror, rise	90
Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings	79
Safely through another week	61
Saviour, again to thy dear Name	84
Saviour, when, in dust, to Thee	63
Shall we meet beyond the river	106
Sing with all the sons of glory	70
Stand up, stand up, for Jesus	91
~~Sweet is the work, my God, my King~~	~~36~~
The counsels of redeeming grace	16
The glorious universe around	8
There is an eye that never sleeps	3
There is a safe and secret place	6
There 's a wideness in God 's mercy	67
They who seek the throne of grace	62
Thine forever, God of love	60
Thou art the way: — to thee alone	20
Thou, whose almighty word	78
Thy way, not mine, O Lord	87
Thou Lamb of God, thou Prince of Peace	36
Walk in the light, so shalt thou know	10
Wave, wave the Banner	97
We may not climb the heavenly steps	13
With tearful eyes I look	110
Workman of God! O lose not heart	115
When time seems short and death is near	44a
Ye servants of God, your master	92
